Summer activities in full swing

By Leilani Thomas
Tourism Director

On the Road

Summer is upon us as the temperatures rise, harvesting is in progress, and travelers are enjoying their vacation trips. This season is always a fun one for all of us who have the opportunity to work at the Colby Visitor Center. We had the opportunity to share our community with a guided tour for the Kansas Arts Commission in June. The Visitor Center was just one of the stops that we made. They seemed very impressed with the facility and we were proud to share it with them. It is truly a pleasure to share our community with those who stop to visit and to hear the stories of the visitors. If you would like to be a volunteer, please call Ralph at 460-0076 and express your interest. Both Northwest Kansas Travel Council and 1-70 are in the process of putting together new marketing pieces. Travel Council develops the Ultimate Guide which is a 32 page magazine featuring hunting, fishing and attractions and is taken to the travel shows we attend. The 1-70 brochure is a very popular piece describing the attractions and events of the communities along the 1-70 corridor. Nominees are being sought for the 2007-2008 Leadership Thomas County program. Applications and the Quest which describes the program will be mailed by the middle of July. The program is seeking interested individuals who are interested in making a difference in our county. The focus is on developing leadership skills, increasing community awareness, and forming relationships with community leaders. The program will be held only if 10 qualified class members are accepted. Dates scheduled for this year's sessions are the opening retreat Oct. 9 and 10, Nov. 14, Dec. 12, Jan. 9, March 12, and April 9. The Topeka trip is scheduled for Feb. 13-15, 2008. Celebration will follow the completion of the class project. If you would like to nominate someone or yourself, please call Leilani at 460-7643. There are a couple of centerpiece events occurring during the month of July. The 12th Annual Pickin' on the Plains Bluegrass Festival will be held at the Thomas County Fairgrounds July 20-22. This show gets bigger and better every year and this year the tradition will continue. Headliner bands this year include Rarely Herd from Ohio, Blue Canyon Boys from Colorado, Ozark Alliance of Missouri, Oklahoma's Bonham Revue and Spontaneous Combustion from Missouri. Rarely Herd and Blue Canyon Boys are appearing for the first time and promise to be crowd pleasers. Local bands will include the McLemore Family, Larry Booth, and Sappa Strings (Millie and Wayne Lauritsen) who we still claim even though they now live in Colorado. Also back as emcee is High Plains Public Radio's Marshal Allen Bailey who will also perform with the Silver Bullets Saturday evening. This is a show you won't want to miss. Advance weekend tickets are available at the Chamber office, F&M Bank at Dillons and Past Times in downtown Colby. Picnic in the Park continues each Wednesday except for the Fourth of July. Don't miss the Big Kiwanis fireworks display at the fairgrounds at about 10 p.m. on July 4. Preceding the display will be a hot dog feed sponsored by the Lions Club with games, contests and activities. Relay for Life will be held July 27 at Dennen Field with music, luminary service, and auction. The end of the month brings the Thomas County Fair. Enjoy the exhibits, PRCA rodeos, demolition derby, auto races, barbecue and Fair Parade. The hometown carnival will be held each evening at 7 p.m. with rides and carnival games. The carnival takes a lot of volunteers to make it work. We thank all of those who give of their time. The fair is truly a family event; be sure to participate.

Fashion review helps with clothes

By Heloise

charity groups that help so many. School drama/theatrical departments also might want some clothes. Helpful clothespins Dear Heloise: I bought plastic clothespins and some of that self-adhesive magnetic material that comes in a coil. I cut strips of the magnetic material and placed them on one side of several of the clothespins. These stay on my refrigerator, where they are handy for all sorts of things, such as holding an important business card, note or recipe, etc. Another use for a plastic clothespin is to keep the tags on my tea bags on the outside of my cup. I have no idea how many times I've been pouring the hot water and forget to hold the tags, and they end up in the tea — not a catastrophe, but I find it a nuisance. I simply clip one of the clothespins over the strings, and no sliding in! — Mrs. Rande Snyder, San Antonio Party hint Dear Heloise: I have a hint that I hope will be useful to you and your readers for casual parties and get-togethers. We recently celebrated my mother's 90th birthday. I used small ponytail holders as napkin rings for her party. They worked very well keeping the plastic tableware and paper napkin in place. I placed them upright in a basket, and they were very easy to handle. They were colorful and inexpensive at a local store that sells things for $1, and looked very nice on the table. Many guests commented on what a clever idea it was, and some had fun collecting them for ponytail and pigtail use at a later date. — Pat Hanshew, Highland, Ind.
