Areduced field and a sparse crowd gave the Tournament of Champions a different feel this year. But the final result was all too familiar for the #4 ranked Colby Community College wrestling team.

The squad, led by hall-of-fame head coach Steve Lampe, won the Tournament of Champions with a team total of 102.5 points.

"I'm really pleased with the way we wrestled coming off a break," said Lampe.

Trojan men best Pratt in overtime

By Trent Rose

Colby Community College Sports Information

The Colby Community College men's basketball team (5-10, 2-0) won in thrilling fashion Saturday night, defeating Pratt 71-70 in overtime in Pratt.

Freshman forward Erick Pegeuro banked home a three-pointer at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime and the Trojans got a late defensive stand in overtime to seal the one point victory.

"I told our guys after the game, sometimes you win gritty," said head coach John Woods. "The game didn't play out the way we expected. But all that matters is that we are 2-0 in the conference."

Coach Woods was frustrated with his team most of the night, because the team consistently setteled for outside shots.

The Trojans shot 42 percent from the field, committed 27 turnovers throw line.

"We need to work on getting the ball to the right people at the right time,"Woods said. "Obviously, you don't win many games committing 27 turnovers or shooting poorly. That is something we will focus on when we play Dodge City next Wednesday.'

The Trojans trailed by seven points with a minute and a half left in regulation, but a furious rally evened the score. Jordan Ottoway, who struggled shooting most of the night, hit a three-pointer at the beginning of overtime.

Pratt responded with a threepointer of their own, and the rest of overtime followed the same script. Everytime Colby would score, Pratt followed.

With 28 seconds remaining, Koance Davis, who scored five points in overtime, hit a free-throw to give the Trojans a 71-70 lead. The Trojans held Pratt without scoring, but Ottoway missed the front end of a one-and-one, to give the and shot just 8-19 from the free- ball back to Pratt with six seconds remaining.

However the Trojans defense once again responded to seal the victory.

Only seven players saw action for the Trojans, but four scored in double-figures led by Koance Davis who had a double-double with 18 points and 13 rebounds on 8-16 shooting.

Point Guard Andrew Engel knocked down five three-pointers for his 15 points. He also had six rebounds.

The conferences leading scorer Mike Boyd was held to 11 points on 4-8 shooting. Peguero had secondstraight game in double-figures, finishing with 10 points.

Coming off a season-high 25 point performance, Jordan Ottoway finished 3-10 from the field and 1-7 from behind the three-point stripe with seven points. Mikey Doll chipped in six while Everson Lacerda added four.

Colby, 5-10 on the season, will look to move to 6-10 and 3-0 in the league 8 p.m. Wednesday when they travel to Butler County.
