

Colby runner gets Shrine invite

Former Colby High cross country star Josh Baden was one of 60 runners in the state selected to participate in the 2008 Kansas Shrine Bowl 5K Run 7 a.m. July 26 in Emporia.

Baden, a University of Kansas signee, will be part of the Boys West All-Star Cross Country team.

He is the first Colby runner selected to participate in the race in its brief history. Baden finished second at the state cross country meet in Wamego last year and was a four-time letterwinner at Colby High.

"I think it's going to be a great event. They've got the top runners in the state running in that," said Colby High head cross country coach Bob Mannebach. "Josh should do very well. He had a great career, and he's been working out all the time. He should be ready for it. It will prepare him for his season at KU."

The field of 60 will be divided into four teams of 15 with two boys and girls teams from the east and west. Runners will be timed and awarded separately, allowing friends, relatives and schoolmates to run with the all-stars.

Entry fees are $20 per person if registered before today; and $40 on the day of the event. A $10 discount may be taken for any member of a middle school, high school or college cross country team.

The event is in coordination with the Shrine Bowl All-Star football game, which begins 7 p.m. that night at Welch Stadium on the campus of Emporia State University.

"Like the football teams that consist of 68 of the best football players in Kansas, the cross country event will bring together the best athletes in the sport for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to compete with and against the best in Kansas," said Shrine Bowl executive director Dave Mize in a prepared statement.
