Colby pitcher throws perfect game

Colby's American Legion baseball team finished the season on a high note as pitcher Levi Schlick threw a perfect game Saturday in a 17-0 win at Burlington, Colo.

The game was called after four innings.

Schlick faced 12 batters and struck out seven.

Colby scored four runs in the first inning and had a 7-0 lead by the third. Schlick ended the game with a 11-run fourth.

Schlick also showed his power at the plate as he was 4-4 including two home runs, double and five RBIs.

Stephen Dinkel was 2-4, a home run and three RBIs.

Brent Arnberger was 3-4 and a RBI. Chaz Winger was 3-3 with an RBI.

Colby had 18 hits.

In the second game of the doubleheader, Colby again showed its power in a 14-1 game. Colby had a 2-0 lead in the first and extended that to 4-0 by the third. Five runs each in the fourth and fifth inning were scored by Colby. Burlington scored its lone run in the fourth.

Big 12 football is back as powerhouse conference

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — There was a time when the Big 12 was known as top-heavy, with powerhouses like Oklahoma and Texas playing for national championships and the rest of the conference fighting it out to squeak into some smaller bowl.

Actually, it wasn't all that long ago. Try last year.

But, boy, what a difference a year can make.

Following a surprising season when four of its teams finished in the top 10 in the final 2007 poll, the Big 12 is no longer well down the pecking order behind powerhouses like the SEC, Big 10 and Pac-10. The Big 12 is back among the elite, perhaps as strong as it's been in 12 years as a conference.

"There's no question as to whether one of the top conferences in the nation," Texas A&M defensive back Devin Gregg said Monday at the first of three Big 12 media days. "I believe the teams are a little more equal now, there's talent all across the Big 12. You look at any team on any Saturday and there's someone out there who can make a big play."
