Comment on Comedy Central draws Kansas governor's response

TOPEKA (AP) — Stephen Colbert has a standing invitation from Gov. Kathleen Sebelius to spend a night in the historic jail in Canton, Kan.

Colbert, host of Comedy Central's "The Colbert Report," jokingly insulted the town of 800 residents Wednesday night, saying, "You can smell that dump all the way from Topeka." Canton, in McPherson County, is about 105 miles southwest of the capital.

"If Dorothy was from Canton, Kansas, she would have wished that the house dropped on her," Colbert said.

Colbert's remarks came as he apologized to Canton, Ga., for calling it "crappy" last week. He said he actually meant the Kansas town.

Sebelius mailed and faxed him a letter Thursday. She said it was a shame that he had missed the McPherson County Fair, "where we surely could have gotten you bucked off something."

She then extended the invitation for a night in jail. She said normally an appointment is necessary to see the site but, "We can get you an overnight booking anytime you are available."

"Consider yourself to have a standing appointment," Sebelius wrote. "We hope to hear you're coming for a visit."

"We Are So Grateful!"

"My family and I thank you for the kindness you have shown us this summer while we have campaigned for District Judge. Whether it is through helping us get out signs or visiting with us in your homes, churches and businesses, I am truly humbled by your graciousness and support. I look forward to the opportunity to serve you. I would appreciate your vote August 5, 2008."-Andrea Wyrick, Republican Candidate for District Judge, Division 2.
