Correction

There were several errors in an article on Page 1 of the Friday, Oct. 10, Colby Free Press entitled "City OKs loans for Building." The money used to purchase the building at 455 North Franklin will come from the city's Economic Development Sales Tax fund, said City Manager Carolyn Armstrong. Money from a $500,000 Community Development Block Grant from the state will be loaned by the city to Embark Health Inc. to help pay for the organization's operations and equipment. Farmers and Merchants Bank said it has no ownership interest in the Sleep Inn motel. The bank will be paying for 19.5 percent of the costs to pave 370 feet of Sewell Avenue that will run in front of the hotel. The bank owns a portion of the land on the west side of Sewell. The rest of the cost will be covered by Frank and Teresa Sanitate, who own the land where the hotel will be built. The bank does not own any part of land on the east side of the new street. Sutherland Investment LLC has agreed not to develop anything north of the hotel until the road in front of its property is paved, said Armstrong. These were reporting errors.
