After Leo was discharged they moved to Colby, KS. where they lived for their almost 66 years of marriage. To the couple were born four children, Nancy Ann Berens Carpenter, Leo Berens Jr. who died at birth, John Jay Berens and Timothy Leo Berens.

Elizabeth will be remembered for her beautiful work as a seamstress as well as her love of playing Canasta and going to Sewing Club. She was a devoted wife and mother who spent many years assisting in the care of her invalid son, John Jay, who has preceded her in death. In addition to her husband, Leo, Elizabeth is survived by her daughter Nancy Carpenter and her husband, Melvin of Overland Park, KS., her son Timothy and his wife Leah of Olathe, KS., two grandchildren, Cary Carpenter and his wife Fusako of San Francisco, CA. and Casandra Carpenter and her husband Andy Ross of Overland park, KS. and two great grandchildren, Madaleine Carpenter-Ross and Case Carpenter-Ross of Overland Park, KS.

ROBERT CLARK

Robert Clark, a long-time Prosser, Washington resident, passed away 25 Oct 08 at the Heritage Grove Care Facility in Yakima, WA. after a brief illness. He had been a resident at Heritage Grove for the past year and a half.

Robert was born 22 April 1920, to Boland James and Stella Randell Clark in Oakley, Thomas County, Kansas. He graduated from Colby High School in 1939 and then joined the US Navy. He completed his initial navy training in San Diego, CA and was stationed aboard the battleship USS Tennessee.

As a gunner's mate (1st class), he was aboard the Tennessee on Dec 7, 1941 during the bombing of Pearl Harbor. After Pearl Harbor, while stationed at Bremerton, WA, he met and married Betty Jane Wagner. Shortly after their marriage Bob was sent to China with the Sino American Cooperative Organization (SACO). His assignment was to help train the troops of Chiang Kai Shek. The men of the SACO "Rice Paddy Navy" remain highly esteemed in Taiwan and in the 1990's Bob was awarded a medal by the Taiwanese government.

In 1945 Bob finished his Navy enlistment in Norman, Oklahoma where his eldest daughter was born. He and Betty stayed briefly in Kansas, where his eldest son was born. In 1948 Bob and his family relocated to Richland, WA where their last two children were born. He began his career in nuclear power at the Hanford Nuclear Reservation. He subsequently worked on reactors at Valocitas, CA, Elk River, MN, Brownville, NB, and then returned to WA where he worked at the WPPSS facility. In 1983 Bob and Betty moved to Taiwan, Republic of China where Bob worked at the Maanshan nuclear facility for two years. Upon their return to the US, he worked briefly at a nuclear facility in CT, and finally, back to Hanford from where he retired.

Bob filled his retirement days by tending his large yard and entertaining family and friends. He enjoyed gardening, his lawn mower, the National Geographic magazine, and keeping current with world events. He was an active participant in SACO reunions and remained president of the regional Pearl Harbor Survivors Association until his death. He spoke several times with local school children and the press about his experiences at Pearl Harbor.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents Boland and Stella Clark, his stepfather Levi Keck, his siblings John Clark, Betty Clark Trail, Joseph W. Clark, Margaret Clark Ross, and Dean Clark; and by his eldest son, Robert Mitchell Clark. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Betty Jane Wagner Clark of Prosser; his children Jody Clark of Finley, WA., John and Mary Ella Clark of Prosser; his children Tess McCarthy of Prosser; seven grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren.

A memorial service celebrating his life will be held at the First Presbyterian Church of Prosser at 1:00 PM on Saturday, November 8, 2008 with a reception following at the home of Betty and Tess. Private family inurnment services with Full Military Honors will be held at the Prosser Cemetery. Prosser Funeral Home & Crematory is handling the service arrangements.
