Colby Community College freshman wrestler Jackson Cotterell latched on to fellow Colby wrestler Delanno Palmore during the Daniel Cormier Open at the Colby Community Building on Saturday.

Trojans impressive at home event

The Colby Community College wrestling team had three weight champions and two second-place finishers at the first Daniel Cormier Open on Saturday at the Community Building.

Freshman Gonbayer Sanjaa defeated former Trojan Levi Younkin of Fort Hays State University to win the 149-pound weight class.

"I was very happy with Gonbayer," said Coach Steve Lampe.

165 pounds.

"Bekzon is amazingly good," Lampe said. "He is going to be every bit as good as his brother was."

His older brother, Muzaffar Abdurakhmonov, won two national championships when he wrestled for the Trojans in 2003 and 2004, Lampe said.

The coach said he has high hopes for his team this year.

"They have the potential to be as good as the team we had in 2003," he said. That team went 14-0 in dual meets and placed second at nationals.

"They were probably the most talented team I ever coached," Lampe said.

The Trojans will compete next at 10 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 16, at the University of Central Missouri Open in Warrensburg, Mo.

Indians defeat Colby 56-6

The Colby High football team's season came to an end on Tuesday, as the Eagles fell to the high-powered Andale Indians 56-6 in the first, or bi-district, round of the state playoffs.

The Eagles (6-4) couldn't get anything going on offense during the game and the defense struggled with Andale's balanced offensive attack. The Indians (8-1) are the reigning state champions in Class 4A.

The Indians came strong out of the chute, as running back Corey Hart broke free for 52 yards during the Indians first possession. The run left the Indians on Colby's 38 yard line, but the Eagles were able to refocus and prevent Andale from scoring a touchdown.

Colby couldn't get anything going on its first possession and had to punt the ball back to the Indians. Senior Tanner Kriss kicked a short punt that left the Indians in great field position. Andale took advantage, and one of its running backs broke free for a 34-yard touchdown.

The Eagles responded to the touchdown with a drive of their own. Junior Ethan Stickel had a nice run that left Colby on the Indians' 26. Returning senior quarterback Heath Stephens finished off the drive by running the ball in from the nine to tie the score at 6.

The Indians fired right back, as their quarterback hooked up with wide receiver Jake Jones for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

Near the end of the half, a defender picked off a Stephens pass and ran it back for a touchdown, stretching Andale's lead to 29.

In the second half, as the Indians continued their offensive onslaught. Hart rushed for a five-yard touchdown during the third quarter to make it 42-6.

Later in the quarter, Hart ran for his third touchdown, running 50 yards to widen Andale's lead to 42. The Eagles couldn't get anything going on offense at all in the second half at all.

It was a tough way for the Eagles to end their season, but it was a good season overall. The Eagles made the playoffs for the first time in 11 years.
