College student gives blood

DEBBIE SCHWANKE/Colby Community Collgeg

Colby sophomore Nick Harlow was one of 70 donors who gave blood during the Red Cross Blood Drive sponsored by the Colby Community College nursing students on October 30. Nursing instructor Tina Schrick reported that 29 first-time donors dropped in at the Student

Books about traffic, vehicles celebrate lower gas prices

To celebrate reduced gas prices, the Pioneer Memorial Library would like to tell you about the most recent addition to our shelves, "Traffic: Why We Drive the Way We Do (and What It Says About Us)," by Tom Vanderbilt.

I found this book to be written with a captivating style. Vanderbilt sucks you into the subject and keeps your interest. Most of us realize that drivers in smaller towns are more likely to be courteous. Vanderbilt tells us this is because we are more apt to know the people and have an ongoing relationship with them.

Driving in a big city is much "like being in an online chat room under a pseudonym," he says. "Freed from our identity and surrounded by others known only by their 'screen names' (traffic, license plates) ... where the normal constraints of life are left behind (p. 27)." He also tells us that studies show that if drivers are coming toward an unmarked intersection, the female is more often given the right-of-way. The study shows this is because men drivers believe they may be "less ... competent or rational." was it just chivalry? (p. 34)."

A few chapter titles may also entice you to consider the book. "Why Ants Don't Get into Traffic Jams...," "Why Women Cause More Congestion Than Men...,' (and my favorite), "Why You Shouldn't Drive with a Beer-Drinking Divorced Doctor Named Fred on Super Bowl Sunday in a Pickup Truck in Rural Montana: What's Risky on the Road and Why."

If you are a car enthusiast, we have added an 11-chapter book by Randy Leffingwell, "Corvette: 50 Years." You will enjoy not only the exquisite pictures of these beautiful machines, but also the interiors, engines, chassis and pipes. This 383page book is packed with loads of information for the trivia buff, as well as stories telling about the designers and how the changes made to various model years came about. Any Corvette lover will want to check this out

If you always try to keep up on the latest trends in vehicle news, remember that we have patrons who have participated in the Friends of the Library "Adopt-a-Magazine" program. Magazines such as Four Wheeler, Motor Trend, Popular Mechanics, Hot Rod, Cycle World, and Speed Sport News have been purchased so that people can check these out from the library and enjoy them in the comfort of your home.

And speaking of vehicles, the state Library has provided the online database Chilton fs Auto Repair for those wanting to learn more about their vehicles. It has information on vehicles starting in 1929 and ending in 2007. The information on 2008 will be included in the next subscription period.

This great resource covers both U.S. and foreign vehicles. If you want to find this resource, go to the library website at www.colbylibrary. com and then look to the right side of the page and click on Adult and Business Links. On the next page you will find the link to Chilton fs.

Another great resource for automobiles and purchasing other products is Consumer Reports: Buying Guide 2008. This is such a popular item that we have two available for your use. Come into the library and take it from the reference or the periodicals section.

With today's economy, taking time to breeze through this handy paperback book will allow you to make wiser and more informed choices for items such as cars, cell phones, televisions and even snow blowers!

If you are an online enthusiast, go to the library website at www.colbylibrary.com, find the Adult and Business Link, click on it and then look for Consumer Reports and there you will find some instructions given on finding it in on the state Library database system.

Remember, the library continues to provide Story Time for preschoolers at 10:15 a.m. or 1:15 p.m. Tuesday, as well as Toddle Time at 10:15 a.m. Wednesdays. It also has Family Night at 7 n m. Tuesdays for that family that is busy during the Moms and caregivers of infants are invited to participate in the library's newest program, Baby Lapsit, for kids up to 18 months. And for all those students, the Homework Center is here for you from 3:30 to 7 p.m. Monday-Thursday.

We invite students looking for help while at home to use the online resources that we have reviewed and consider worthy for both your homework needs and just general enjoyment. The junior high/middler page can be found at www.colbylibrary.com/webpages/6-8StudentLinks.htm, and the high school age students' webpage at www.colbylibrary.com/webpages/Highschool Student Links.htm.

Remember to come use our Wi-Fi Hot Spot in the lobby of the library as well. It's there just for you!
