Thank You

We would like to recognize with sincere and grateful thanks: Dr. La Donna Regier, Brian Unruh P.A., Citizens Medical Center, R.N.’s, L.P.N.’s, C.M.A.’s, C.N.A.’s, college nursing students, Respiratory Therapists, Physical Therapists, Social Workers, Lab and X-Ray Techs, and food specialists for all the patient and compassionate care given to Emma Hamel during her lengthy stay. The Serenity Room offered Emma and her family a caring and comfortable environment for spending much needed secluded time before God called Emma home.

To the many family, relatives and friends that gave of their time to travel great distances to visit or to inquire as to her health, know that your prayers and many acts of kindness were very greatly appreciated.

Many thanks and special blessing to Fr. Dana Clark for the many visits and prayers, for the moving and memorable church service and for the memorial booklet; to Jeannie Solko for making all the service arrangements, to the ladies who prepared, donated and served the luncheon, to the Hill City and Damar area families who organized the refreshment get-together following the cemetery burial, to Someplace Special for the casket arrangement and especially to Harrison Chapel for executing Emma’s funeral arrangements exactly as she had requested.

If we have inadvertently missed anyone in our humanness please forgive us and know that we appreciated all thoughtfulness and acts of kindness.
