Humor, history welcome 2009

Happy New Year! We are gearing up for lots of projects in the library.

I am purchasing DVDs for art and photography instruction materials, as well as some historical background on some artists and art forms. Many library patrons are becoming more visual learners. Being able to checkout a DVD on how to create a particular type of art or improve your photography could be very helpful.

Some visual learners merely need to see someone actually do something, and then they are off creating all by themselves. We were blessed to be given a grant from the Thomas County Attorney Special Law Enforcement Fund, handled through the Thomas for $1,262 for just that purpose.

Judy Kleinsorge, the children's librarian, has just purchased materials and supplies for 2009 Story Time through a grant from Wal-Mart for $1,000. each week she will have some craft and activity for the two preschool sessions, one Toddle Time session, and one family night.

A new book I have been enjoying is, "A Life in Letters: Ann Landers' Letters to Her Only Child," by Margo Howard. This book starts with a very personal and informative introduction by Margo Howard, her daughter.

One admission that Margo makes is that having her mother starting her high-profile career in 1958 was "like a gift from the gods" (p. 2). She say that this child and directed her attention insightful humor.

and effort into her own writing and her growing career.

Another book that I found intriguing, "The Wordy Shipmates," by Sarah Vowell. This book is about John Cotton and a group of English religious dissidents who left England in 1630 for America. John Cotton's group were Puritans, but presented themselves to the King as nonseparatist.

This book covers politics and County Community Foundation, religion through the prism of is here to serve you. We want newspapers, pamphlets and letters of the 17th century.

While this well written and challenging book provides quotes from that time, Vowell provides no bibliography to document sources. A bibliography would help those who want to research some assertion, so that they can examine the historical accuracy of the materials quoted.

A wacky book that some with more imaginative taste might enjoy is "Belle Weather: Mostly Sunny with a Chance of Scattered Hissy Fits," by Celia Rivenbark. This writer has a mind much like Dennis Miller, who often provides commentary on current events for Bill O'Reilly.

work in ways that most of us nevmade her mother so busy that she er approach. Sometimes comic stopped zeroing in on her only relief brings truth to light through Kansas," by Sara Paretsky.

Rivenbark's discussion on remodeling the kitchen and adding granite is really funny. Her chapter discussing the planning of her daughter's birthday sleepover is also enjoyable. If what her 9 year old wants to do in the party is reality, I would hate to see this child at 18.

In the last part of the book, she discusses thoughts on her Internet provider adding messages to the bottom of her serious e-mails. If you are up to a funny book with wit, check this new item out or put it on your reading list for 2009.

The Pioneer Memorial Library you to both continue to learn and continue to enjoy completely fun, frivolous and entertaining materials. If your budget is tight after Christmas, come and checkout materials for free from the library.

Remember we provide free use of computers and the Internet. We are a free Wi-Fi Hot Spot. If you need to find ways to expand you children's world without expanding the cost, consider having them attend Story Time for the young, or Ad-Lib At Da Library for middlers (beginning Saturday, Jan. 24). Story Time schedules resume for Preschool, Family Night (Tuesday, Jan. 6) and Toddle Time (Wednesday, Jan. 7).

Booked for Lunch is sched-Miller's and Rivenbark's brains uled for noon Wednesday with lunch provided. Sue Evans will be reviewing the book, "Bleeding

Hope to see you soon!
