President Dr. Lynn Kreider presented the 2009 First Baby Scholarship plaque to Joe Leija Jr. while his mother Dana watched. Joe Sr. was holding Janessa Marie, who was born Jan. 1 at Citizens Medical Center.

New Year's first baby in county wins full scholarship to college

An early arrival for New Year's baby Janessa Marie Leija resulted in some welcome news for her parents, Joe and Dana Leija.

For the third year, Colby Community College President Lynn Kreider presented the first baby of the New Year born at Citizens Medical Center with a scholarship.

"We are pleased to provide Janessa with a full scholarship, to include tuition, fees and books for two years when she is ready to begin college," said Kreider. "Janessa's mother Dana was a Presidential Scholar at CCC, and we hope this scholarship will allow the new baby to continue the family tradition."

Janessa, who wasn't due until Jan. 29, was born by caesarean section at 4:45 a.m. on New Year's Day. She weighed 5 pounds, 5 ounces and was 17 inches long.

She was welcomed home by her 2-year-old big brother Joe Jr.

Top Colby College scholars named to 2009 All-Kansas Academic Team

Kansas will salute 52 top community college scholars for their academic accomplishments at an awards ceremony Feb. 12 at the Ramada Inn Hotel in Topeka.

Representing 34 towns and the state's 19 community colleges, these scholars have been named to the 2009 All-Kansas Academic Team, sponsored by the international headquarters of Phi Theta Kappa honor society, the Kansas Association of Community College Trustees and the Kansas Council of Community College Presidents.

Students selected to represent Colby Community College are Tisha Bieker of Colby and Ryan Edmundson of Brewster.

A member of the Colby chapter of Phi Theta Kappa honor society, Bieker serves as a tutor for accounting, math and English. She was named to Who's Who Among American College Students and the Colby College President's Honor Roll. She volunteers with the Thomas County carnival, recycling and the Genesis-Thomas County Food Bank. Bieker, the daughter of Chris and Sharon Bieker, plans to attend Fort Hays State University to major in accounting.

Edmundson, son of Stacey and Sherri Edmundson, was chosen to serve as a Student Ambassador, and is a member of Student Senate, pep band, concert band, concert choir and Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity. He was selected to Who's Who Among American College Students.

Edmundson raised money for new park benches at Brewster High School, was appointed to the Brewster City Council, joined Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Thomas County and helps out at the Brewster Senior Center and the community-owned Brewster grocery. He plans to major in business administration at Kansas State University.

Phi Theta Kappa is the honor society for students attending community and two-year colleges. Membership is based on high grade point average and other criteria, with members focusing on scholastic achievement and service to community and campus.

About 500 U.S. community college students will compete for places on the first, second and third national teams. First-team members each receive $2,500 stipends and will be featured in USA Today along with second- and third-team winners. Names of the students will be placed on the society's Web site, www.ptk.org, and the Kansas group will also be included on the corresponding Kansas site.

Academic team nominees may apply for the Phi Theta Kappa Washington Internship Program.

Phi Theta Kappa's All-State Academic Teams Program was launched in 1994. Each scholar was selected by his or her own college for the state team, and each also is a nominee for the 2009 All-USA Academic Team, sponsored by USA Today, Phi Theta Kappa and the American Association of Community Colleges.

Bieker and Edmundson will receive a proclamation issued by the governor, an educational stipend and an academic medallion.

The Kansas Regents universities and Washburn University will match the stipends with $1,000 scholarships for those who transfer after completing their community college degrees.

College President Dr. Lynn Kreider; Skip Sharp, vice-president of student affairs; and Dr. Paula Davis, vice-president of academic affairs, will attend the event, along with Board of Trustees representative Bill Biel, Phi Theta Kappa advisor Mike McVay and parents of the two students.
