Workshop teaches texting for seniors

DEBBIE SCHWANKE/Colby Community College

Donna Schielke and Connie Mitchell worked together to send text messages during a workshop offered by Colby Community College and S & T Communications. The workshop held on Jan. 22 was taught by S & T representative Andrea Carpenter. Twenty participants learned new ways to stay in touch with family and friends using cell phones. Topics demonstrated included learning to text and use cell language, taking photos with a cell phone, and learning cellular etiquette.

Chance to play baseball brings Holland native to Colby college

Although baseball may not be the first thing that comes to mind when Holland is mentioned, international student Steff de Droog says it's what brought him to Colby Community College.

The Holland native is a freshman pitcher for the Trojan baseball squad. He learned about Colby from his coach in Holland who is a native of Canada. He and CCC assistant coach Matt Dickson, who is also from Canada, are friends.

"My coach in Holland talked with Coach Dickson," said de Droog. "I didn't know anything about Colby so I went to the Internet and checked out the college and the region. Arrangements were made and I arrived in Colby after the semester started in early September."

Sports are not affiliated with the schools in Holland. De Droog played baseball for a club team.

"Baseball is not really a popular sport in Holland," said de Droog. "Soccer, rugby and hockey are the ones that draw big crowds."

De Droog's father is a plumber in the town of Nieuwvenneep. His mother is a homemaker. He also has two sisters. His father Erik accompanied him to Colby in September and recently returned to visit for a few days.

Eric and Steff de Droog visited as Steff enrolled in Colby Community College last fall.

"Colby is similar in size to our hometown," said Erik de Droog. "However, we have a more active downtown area with several bars and restaurants all located in the area. The nearest large city is Amsterdam. I hope to bring my wife and daughters with me when I return in March. I want them to experience the United States and the town of Colby."

Steff de Droog said the transition has been relatively uneventful.

"The biggest surprise was the small population," said de Droog.

"I have taken some English courses in Holland but the language was a challenge. It's getting easier and I'm happy with my decision. The community has been very friendly and has made me feel welcome."

Head coach for the Trojan baseball team is Ryan Carter. He is in his 11th season at CCC. He is assisted by Matt Dickson and Michael Hunt. The Trojans finished 25-30 in an injury-riddled season last year after three consecutive 30-plus win seasons.

College to auction white-tail/mule deer permit

Colby Community College has a unique opportunity for hunters interested in obtaining a deer permit. The college is accepting sealed bids for a white-tail/mule deer permit until Friday, Feb. 20. The 2009 permit, which was awarded to Colby Community College by the Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks, is valid in all Kansas locations.

"The deer permit includes muzzleloader, archery and firearms seasons," said dean of external affairs Barry Kaaz. "The college has applied several times to receive one of these valuable permits. This year we were fortunate to be one of seven names that were drawn to receive a permit."

Eighty-five percent of the proceeds from the auction of the deer permit will be returned to the Wildlife and Parks fund.

All bids must be mailed to Barry Kaaz, Colby Community College, 1255 S. Range, Colby, Kan., 67701.

"There is a reserve minimum which must be met," said Kaaz. "The bids will be opened at 9 a.m. on Feb. 20. The winner will be posted on Monday, Feb. 23, on the Colby Community College archery website at www.archerycolbycommunitycollege.blogspot.com.

For more information about the permits or the bid process, contact Kaaz at (785) 460-5429 or email barry.kaaz@colbycc.edu.

February massage clinics will be open to public

Students in the Colby Community College Physical Therapist Assistant Club will offer two evening massage clinics in February on the college campus.

The clinics, which are open to the general public, will be held from 5-9 p.m. with the final appointment beginning at 8:30, on Monday, Feb. 2 and 9, in room 804 of the Health Sciences Building.

Two options will be offered — a 30-minute massage for $12 or a one-hour massage for $24. All previously sold massage coupons will be honored.

The club promotes professionalism among physical therapist assistants, providing lifelong learning opportunities and helping students identify potential career development possibilities. In addition to the massage clinics, the club helps with community health fairs, campus activities and Kansas Physical Therapy Association conferences.

Anyone interested in scheduling an appointment should contact Trudy Wildeman at (785) 460-4797 weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or e-mail trudy.wildeman@colbycc.edu.
