Deaths

Ann Andersen

Ann Andersen, 80, Oakley, a retired Southwestern Bell telephone operator, died Thursday, Feb. 5, 2009, at Denver Hospice in Aurora, Colo.

She was born July 18, 1929 in Sheridan County to Louis H. and Anna (Moellering) Lindeman and had lived in this area all her life. She graduated from Grinnell High School in 1946 and started her career with Southwestern Bell in 1947, working for the telephone company for 31 years. Her favorite job was working the switchboard, though she also held management positions.

In 1950, she married Gerald "Zig" Zeigler. He died in an accident in 1953. On Aug. 24, 1960, she married Mads W. "Bud" Andersen.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Oakley and its Altar Society. She was a lifetime member of the Telephone Pioneers, and a member of the Communications Workers of America, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary.

She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Oliver Lindeman.

She is survived by her husband, of the home; two sons, Greg (Mary) Andersen, Oakley, and Kirk Andersen, Everett, Wash.; a daughter Gara Lynn Zeigler, Oakley; four brothers, Louis "Dyke" (Alice) Lindeman Jr., Dennis (Helen) Lindeman, and Raymond Lindeman, all of Oakley, and Bob Lindeman of Hutchinson; two sisters, Rita (Francis) Beckman, Menlo, and Adele Thomas, Charlotte, N.C.; a sister-in-law, Vi Lindeman, Oakley; and two grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 11, 2009, at the church, with Father Michael Elan officiating and burial in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the church, with a wake service at 7 p.m.

The family suggests contributions to the Logan County Hospital, Logan County Manor, St. Joseph's School or Oakley Public Schools, in care of Kennedy-Koster Funeral Home, Box 221, Oakley, Kan., 67748.

Philomene Lang

Philomene Marie "Minnie" Lang, 86, Quinter, mother of Kenneth (Beverly) Lang of Colby, died Friday, Feb. 6, 2009, at the Gove County Medical Center in Quinter.

She was born Aug. 10, 1922, on a farm in Ellis County, to Joseph M. and Sophie (Rupp) Pfannenstiel. She married Bernard Lang on June 11, 1946, in Hays. Mrs. Lang worked at the Dairy Queen in Quinter for 27 years.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband on March 2, 1981; two brothers, Ignatius and Edward Pfannenstiel; and five sisters, Matilda Wittman, Sister Irene Carmelyn, Albertine Pfannenstiel, Edna Jane Pfannenstiel and Jeannette Pfannenstiel.

She is survived by three other sons, Derrell (Pam) Lang, Maricopa, Ariz.; Gary (Marsha) Lang of Westminster, Calif.; and Randy (Darlene) Lang, Castle Rock, Colo.; two daughters, Charlene (Leon) Wittman, Shawnee, and Coleen (Dan) Pickett, Longmont, Colo.; two sisters, Rita Bieker, Hays, and Mary Ann (Gilbert) Schmeidler, Catherine; 15 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 10, 2009, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Park and burial in the church cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. today at the Schmitt Funeral Home in Quinter, with a vigil service at 7:30.

The family suggests gifts for Walk-A-Thon for health or the church in care of the funeral home, 901 S. Main, Quinter, Kan., 67752.

Sun, wind on Friday

CYNTHIA HAYNES/Colby Free Press
Enjoying the sunshine on Friday but fighting the wind, Emma Maier (front) and Jenna Reinert delivered Feist phone books to merchants in downtown Colby. The books were all stored in yellow hanger bags in the back of the Reinerts' pickup. Jenna attends Sacred Heart School while Emma goes to Colby Grade School.

Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club on Monday was parent's night, when the parents filled in for the members.

It was announced that the large animal weigh-in would be on Feb. 14 and pizza making would be this Saturday.

The club voted to give three bundles of daffodils to 4-H helpers, $30 to the American Cancer

Society and $100 to the 4-H Foundation.

Bob Standage gave a project talk on How to Give a Project Talk, Emily Standage gave a demonstration on how to bottle feed goat kids and Jay Todd gave a talk on roping.

For recreation, Tamara Ziegelmeier led the club in playing a Valentine word game.
