Corrections

The photo of a wrestler on Page 1 of the Monday, March 2, Colby Free Press was accidentally switched. The caption identified the wrestler as Brett Arnberger, but the photo actually showed Adam Weber. The same photo appeared on Page 8. This was a mistake in page assembly. Arnberger's picture was scheduled to run.

Dr. Lane D. Smith, Katie Marie Ross

Two Colby graduates to marry in Sterling

Two Colby High School graduates, Katie Marie Ross of Hutchinson and Dr. Lane D. Smith of Wichita, plan to marry Saturday, May 2, 2009, at the United Methodist Church in Sterling.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Robb and Julie Ross of Colby. She graduated from high school in 1999 and from Sterling College in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training and exercise science. She is a health educator for the Reno County Health Department in Hutchinson.

The prospective groom is the son of Alvin and Peggy Smith of Colby. He graduated from Colby High in 2000 and from the Cleveland Chiropractic College in 2007. He practices at Northwest Chiropractic Clinic in Wichita.

The couple plans to live in the Hutchinson area after their marriage.

Streets get cleanup

The Thomas County road crew spent time Tuesday cleaning up sand for the City of Rexford.

The residents along School Street appreciated the cleaned up along the gutters and property adjacent to the curb. Winter snow removal, when done too quickly, flings sand onto property where it is not wanted.

Red Barn happenings: Monday: 1 to 5 p.m., Barnswallows. Wednesday: 10 a.m., Ladies
