

Auction exhibit goes to Hays; Signature fund-raiser in April

Smoky Hills Public Television’s 2009 Signature Auction activities continue Friday, March 20, with the opening of the auction collection exhibit at the Mall at Hays. The collection will be on display through Saturday, April 11, from noon to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon to 6 p.m. Sunday. The auction, one of the station’s most popular fund-raising events, will be April 17-19 at the Mall. All of the festivities will be broadcast live from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday, and 4 to 10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Nearly 400 items will be up for sale, including about 280 in the exclusively on-air portion of the event, and close to 100 in the online component, said Jayne Heller, director of development for the station. All proceeds from the auction go to benefit the Public Broadcasting station. A hand-painted silk Chinese scroll, just one of nearly 50 pieces of elegant Chinese art; a pub table and stools; three Sirena Collection Merit Diamond pendants; a guided spring turkey hunt; and packages for Kansas, U.S. and Caribbean travel are just a few of the auction items, Heller said. “The Signature Auction features fine and folk art, antiques, furniture, jewelry, travel packages, and other unique and interesting items,” she said. “The exhibit at the Mall is a wonderful opportunity for the public to view many of the items which will be up for purchase.” Visitors at the Mall can sign up for an auction bidder number and place pre-auction bids on the items. Detailed information, including a photo gallery, on most items will be available on the station’s web site (www.shptv.org) starting Monday, March 23. “We are grateful to the individuals, businesses and organizations that have donated to this year’s Signature Auction and over the years,” Heller said. For information, call (800) 337-4788 or (785) 483-6990. Smoky Hills serves 70 counties in Kansas and one in Nebraska.
