

Youth poetry contest now accepting submissions

The Kansas Author's Club is sponsoring the Karnowski Youth Poetry Contest for writers 5 to 18. This contest is underwritten by William J. Karnowski. Youths in western Kansas should submit entries to district Vice President Joel Herndon, Box 669 Dighton, Kan., 67839, by June 15. Poetry may be on any subject, in any style, with any structure and any length. Contestants should write their name, address, phone or e-mail contact, district number, age on Aug. 15, and grade level for the 2008/2009 school year. Poems will be returned if a self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed. Students should keep a copy as back-up. Three prizes will be awarded: first $100, second $50 and third $2 at the club's 2009 Annual Convention and Writers Conference awards luncheon in Topeka on Sunday, Oct. 18. By entering the contest, youth writers and their parents give the club permission to use their names and submissions in print form. This contest is separate from the Kansas Author's Club youth contest. Students are encouraged to enter both.
