

Basketball championships to be broadcast on Saturday

BUNKER HILL – Smoky Hills Public Television will present taped, delayed broadcasts of the Kansas State High School Activities Association's Class 1A girls and boys basketball state championships.

The girls game will air at 8 p.m. next Monday, March 30, and again at 3 p.m. on Saturday, April

4. The boys contest is scheduled for 8 p.m. on Thursday, April 2, and again at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 5.

Both games were played Saturday, March 14, at Gross Memorial Coliseum on the campus of Fort Hays State University in Hays.

Mike Heshner, Hoisington, is the play-by-play announcer with Larry Jantz, Hays, the color commentator for the broadcasts.

DVDs of the broadcasts will once be available by calling (785) 483-6990 or through e-mail to sports@shptv.org.

This is the fourth year that Smoky Hills has presented taped, delayed broadcasts of the Class 1A championship games.

Saving tips help teens manage money

MANHATTAN – Changes in the economic climate are affecting teens and young adults, a Kansas State University specialist says.

Youths who typically enjoy spending time with their friends can find it more difficult to cover the cost of dinner and a movie or other activities, said Carol Young, K-State Research and Extension financial management specialist.

With many costs rising, older teens and young adults who learn and practice money management and saving strategies may be better able to meet their financial needs, said Young, who offered some ideas for young adults:

- Make a list of current financial commitments, including basic health, car and renters' insurance, and other expenses, which may range from school fees to rent, food, clothing, car payments and insurance, medical expenses, etc.
- Prioritize financial needs. Housing, loan payments and health insurance should rank high. Electronic gadgets and eating out might fall into a "wants" category to monitored carefully.

- Set financial goals to cover payments and obligations, and look for ways to cut basic costs, such as sharing rent and car rides.
- Shop for a lower interest rate to refinance a car loan or trade for a more economical car.
- Put the credit cards away. Using a credit card to cover an emergency expense or an emergency fund may add expense. Interest and other fees can add up quickly. Carrying a balance obligates future earnings and income.
- Choose credit sources with care. Avoid the temptation to apply for unneeded credit cards in exchange for an inexpensive give away such as a T-shirt or food. Carrying more credit than needed can affect your insurance rates and future borrowing power.
- Keep receipts; verify receipts with debit, checking or other account status regularly.

- Shop with a "needs" list, and stick to the list to minimize impulse purchases.
- Use software to track spending. Programs include Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Money and Quicken. Free website programs or software downloads for financial management also are available. Check the security of the site and take time to read the privacy rules before either uploading personal data or downloading financial management tools.

One additional tip from Young touches on wise use of student loans. Many students are overwhelmed with both college-loan and credit-card bills after graduation. Plan to borrow the minimum that you will need, no more. If possible, try to cover food and other living expenses with part-time work.
