

The Colby Visitor Center, located just off I-70 in Colby, provides a unique first impression for travelers. The center is staffed by volunteers and operated by the Colby Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Bureau promotes area tourism

The Colby Convention and Tourism Bureau is a quasi department of the City of Colby and is managed by and co-located with the Colby-Thomas County Chamber of Commerce.

They promote the area by marketing activities which attract visitors to Colby. They market through billboards, advertising, brochure development and distribution, print and broadcast media, web, and calendar of events.

They also provide hospitality and recruitment.

The director is Leilani Thomas. The board is made up by representatives of six lodging facilities and four businesses, who are appointed by the Mayor. The bureau is financed by a 3 percent guest tax, which is approved by the city council. For information, call 785-460-7643.
