Funeral mass will be at 10 a.m. Thursday, May 21, 2009, at St. Agnes Catholic Church in Grainfield, with burial in the Grainfield Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5:30 to 6 p.m. Wednesday at the Schmitt Funeral Home in Quinter. A vigil service will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

The family suggests memorials to the Quinter Ambulance Service or for masses, in care of the funeral home, 901 S. Main, Quinter, Kan., 67752.

Colby Comets 4H Club

The monthly meeting of the Colby Comets 4-H club was held on April 20. Matt Lindberg was acting president and Ariel Severson was acting vice-president. Once the meeting was called to order, Secretary Andrea Dizman took roll call asking, "Which do you like better: Coke or Pepsi?" Pepsi was the dominant choice.

Project leaders announced upcoming events and meetings. Karissa Singer and Madison Zimmerman led the club in "Googleheads," a sing-a-long.

After a short recreation break, the club had demonstrations and project talks.

The meeting adjourned to the delight of all present and a snack was enjoyed.

Lillie Rosaline Wagoner

Lillie Wagoner, of Colby Kansas, died Tuesday, May 12, 2009 at Citizens Medical Center in Colby, Kansas.

Lillie was born on April 30, 1916 in Aurora, Kansas to Jeremiah and Rosaline Bechard. She moved with her parents to the Grinnell area in 1925. She attended a country school and rode a horse pulled cart to school and graduated from Grainfield High School in 1933. She was a good athlete and participated in basket ball and volleyball and made the varsity team as a freshman. After high school she studied to receive her teaching certificate and taught in a country school teaching all eight grades until her marriage to Lawrence Wagoner on August 24, 1937. Lillie and Lawrence purchased a farm one mile south of Grinnell in 1943 where together they built a new home and operated the family farm for many years. They had two children, a son Kerry and a daughter Deanna. Lillie was a busy and talented homemaker, and enjoyed baking, sewing, gardening and making beautiful crafts. Her passion was creating beautiful quilts and wall hangings and showed and sold her many beautiful crafts across northwest Kansas. She mostly enjoyed quilting where over the years she has made many quilts for family and friends. Her children and grandchildren all have a quilt for a keepsake. Family was the most important part of Lillie's life. She lived for the times that her grandchildren and great grandchildren would come to visit. She always had something special baked or a special treat for each of the kids. Other interests included sports of all kinds. She mostly enjoyed Kansas Jayhawks basketball but also enjoyed watching baseball. She never missed a Jayhawk game on TV over the years and March Madness becoming her favorite time of college basketball. She had her home decorated with all of the Jayhawk memorabilia. Lillie had been very active in her parish—Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Grinnell, Kansas. She belonged to EHU in Grinnell where she loved meeting with her many friends. She participated in 4-H for many years with her children where she taught clothing, cooking and judged many fairs in the summer. Lillie moved to Colby, Kansas in August of 1998 to be closer to her daughter and family. There she became a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Lillie's Catholic faith was a major part of her life. She looked forward to attending mass and never missed watching the daily mass on TV.

In June of 2005, Lillie moved to her new home—Prairie Senior Living Center in Colby where she was surrounded by many loving nurses and caregivers. She met many new friends there where she shared many fun times and activities together.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son - Kerry in 1972, her husband Lawrence in 1999 and 4 brothers. She is survived by one daughter, Deanna Mallory and husband Pat of Colby; 3 grandchildren; Darcie Hills and husband Brent of Fargo, North Dakota; Kerry Ricker and husband Tristan of Elizabeth, Colorado; Kevin Williams and wife Mikki of Ada, Oklahoma, 6 great grandchildren - Hanna, Alyssa and Carter Hills; Mallory and Madalyn Ricker; Hayley Williams and 2 step great grandchildren, Melany and Courtney Landis. She is also survived by 2 sisters, Pauline Elberson-Alta Roma California; Melva Lee Satchell, San Antonio, Texas, and 1 brother LeRoy Bechard, Longmont, Colorado along with many treasured nieces, nephews, and lifetime friends. She will be sadly missed by all.
