David J. Haremza

David J. Haremza, 65, Colby, died Monday, June 8, 2009, at St. Joseph Hospital in Denver. He was born Aug. 7, 1943, in Colby to Ben and Velma (Makings) Haremza.

In addition to his work at the sale barn, he was a retired farmer.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers, Bob Haremza, Bernard Haremza, and Raymond Haremza; and two sisters, Elizabeth Williams; and Judy Huelsmann.

He is survived by three brothers, Ed Haremza of Larned; Jim Haremza of Grand Junction, Colo.;

and Les Haremza of Colby; and a sister, Hulda Gothrop of Curtis, Neb.

Funeral mass will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 13, 2009, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Colby, with burial in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday at the Kersensbrock Funeral Chapel. A vigil and Rosary begin at 7 p.m. Friday at the funeral chapel.

The family suggests memorials to the Prairie Senior Living Complex, in care of the chapel, 745 S. Country Club Dr., Colby Kan., 67701.

Students named to honor roll

Crystal Mannebach, a senior from Colby, has been named to the Academic Dean's Honor Roll of Bethany College in Lindsborg for the spring semester, one of 143 students listed.

To be recognized, a student needed a grade average of at least 3.50 on a 4-point scale.

Other students from the area who were recognized include Tanner Smith, freshman, Goodland; Gabriel Moore, transfer student, Oberlin; Destry Jackson, senior, Norcatour; and Taylor Dirks, freshman, WaKeeney.

Bethany, established by Swedish Lutheran immigrants in 1881, is a college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. On the web, go to www.bethanylb.edu.

Smokin' blues coming to Hays

The Blues and BBQ Cook-off will bring world-class barbecue out West on Friday and Saturday, July 17 and 18, as championship barbecue teams from throughout the Midwest descend on Hays for prizes, cash and fame.

Blues and BBQ is being sponsored by the Downtown Hays Development Corp. and Hays businesses and organizations.

"We want to encourage folks to come out to Blues and BBQ and bring a friend," said Sabrina William, coordinator. "It is one of our community's greatest events, providing delicious food and entertainment for the entire family."

The contest is sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbeque Society, which says it is the world's largest organization of barbecue and grilling enthusiasts. The group uses a blind judging process that with a weighted scoring index to ensure a level playing field for all competitors. The organization also trains and commissions certified barbecue judges. To learn more about the organization, go to www.kcbs.us.

Grilling enthusiasts can obtain an entry form by logging onto the Hays Development website www.ChestnutStreetDistrict.com or by calling the Hays Welcome Center at (800) 569-4505. Entries are due by Friday.

For information, call (785) 628-8201 or visit www.ChestnutStreetDistrict.com.

Grassland cutoff coming

Wednesday, June 24, is the cutoff date for landowners to apply for the Grassland Reserve Program with the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Only applications submitted by the cutoff will be evaluated and ranked for fiscal year 2009.

Those interested can stop by the Natural Resources Conservation Service office, 915 E. Walnut in Colby, to get information.
