Shelly Hoyt gave instructions during the "Be Your Best" basketball camp on Monday afternoon while Corinna Hoyt, her daughter and assistant at the camp, looked on. Several dozen girls attended the camp at the Community Building, with two sessions, one for younger girls and one for older girls.

Rockies win sixth in streak on road

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Jim Tracy's Colorado Rockies road show just keeps rolling.

Trailing by two runs to the Milwaukee Brewers, the Rockies rallied to take the lead with three runs in the seventh inning and continue their recent road resurgence with a 3-2 victory Tuesday night.

The Rockies now have won six straight on the road under Tracy, their recently named new manager — including a four-game sweep of the Cardinals.

"The great thing about the last eight to 10 days is that they're having success and their confidence is growing," said Tracy, who took over for Clint Hurdle on May 29.

"We're young, but we also have great veteran leadership."

It was a big night for recent Triple-A call-up Carlos Gonzalez, who had a pair of doubles and an RBI. Colorado might have started slow under Hurdle, but Gonzalez has known nothing but winning under Tracy since he was recalled June 5.

"It's a great feeling to win every game that I've been here," Gonzalez said.

Rockies starter Jason Hammel (3-3) gave up only two runs and five hits in six innings, but Colorado's offense had a tough time scoring off of Brewers starter Braden Loper.

Royals lose to Cleveland 8-4

CLEVELAND (AP) — It has been 63 days since the Cleveland Indians were anywhere but last in the Central Division. Mark DeRosa's grand slam in the seventh inning changed all of that.

DeRosa's slam off reliever Jamey Wright led Cleveland to an 8-4 victory over the Kansas City Royals in a matchup of the two worst teams in the division. The Indians scored four runs in each of the sixth and seventh innings to move a half-game ahead of the Royals, who have lost 10 of their last 11 and 22 of their last 28.

Cleveland had been in last place since April 8.

"We've battled hard," DeRosa said. "But at the same time, we feel like we're capable of way more than being one game above the cellar."
