Poker run benefits Hays baseball team

On Sunday, June 28, supporters of the Hays Larks baseball team plan a "Legacy of the Hays Larks" motorcycle Poker Run to raise money for the team. The ride will begin at Doerfler's at 2:30 p.m. with stops in Ellis, Plainville, Russell, and Victoria. The final stop will be at Larks' Park, Fourth and Oak Street in Hays, where participants will see their poker hands, eat dinner, participate in raffles, enjoy a Larks' baseball game, and have a chance to win prizes. The Hays Larks are a summer collegiate baseball team comprising players from colleges and universities across the U.S. For information, call Karla Bieber at (785) 625-4502 or Frank Leo at (785) 628-6703.

Babysitting clinic offered

The Thomas County Extension Office and Health Department will offer a two-day babysitting clinic, with registration at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 7, and resuming at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, July 8. The class is for anyone who has completed the 5th grade or older, said Diann Gerstner of the Extension office. Topics will include infant care, emergency procedures, fun activities, nutrition, age-appropriate play and more. Cost is $25, including a copy of the "Babysitter's Training Handbook," and supplies. Registration forms can be picked up at the health department in the Thomas County Office Complex, 350 S. Range, or downloaded from www.thomas.ksu.edu. Registration deadline is Tuesday, June 30. For information, call the Extension office at 460-4582 or the Health Department at 460-4596.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary met Wednesday, June 10, at the post home. President Peggy Ohlrogge presided. The meeting opened with prayer led by the chaplain. Patriotic instructions were read and the flag salute given. The POW-MIA prayer was given at the symbolic table, set with the empty chair. Minutes were read and approved. The treasurer extended a verbal thank you from the Kiwanis Club for the donation for the July 4 fireworks. Publicity reported a news item in the Colby Free Press and community service reported purchasing food stamps for a family. A donation was allowed for the Colby Chamber of Commerce for decorations for "Shine in '09." The trustee moved to allow payment of bills. The national home prayer was offered and the meeting closed with a ritual prayer. The next meeting will be at 5 p.m. Wednesday, July 8, at the post home. – Hazel Duffey
