Carey Jones, the new Colby Community College volleyball coach, will be running "all-skills" camps for students in high school, middle school and grade school in mid-July.

Jones said most of her players for next season will be helping her at camp. She said anyone can participate in the camps as long as they were the right age.

The camp for middle-school students will be from 9 to 11 a.m. and 12:30 to 3 p.m. on Thursday, July 16, at the Community Building. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m.

The camp for high-school athletes will be from 9 to 11 a.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m. on Friday, July 17.

Registration will start at 8 a.m. The camp for kids 7 to 11 will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at noon on Saturday, July 18. Both will be at the Community Building.

Jones said the winners of contests at the camps will earn prizes, including an individual volleyball lesson with Jones, one free registration to the 2010 Trojans Volleyball camp, Trojans Volleyball T-shirts and dinner with the 2009 Lady Trojans.

For information, call (785) 460-5473 or (316) 204-2605 or e-mail Jones at carey.jones@colbycc.edu.

Athletes may register for the high school girls' summer tournament on Saturday, July 11, at the Community Building.

Students who play in the tournament will receive a $10 discount at the camps, Jones said.

Baseball tournament for youth to start soon

The fifth annual Lakin Youth Invitational Baseball Tournament will be played Saturday and Sunday, June 27 and 28, at the Loucks Complex in Lakin, which features a 200-foot fence and pitching mounds.

Age divisions are 8 and under, 10 and under and 12 and under. The tournament will follow Cal Ripkin Baseball Rules, and all teams are guaranteed three games.

Prizes will be given to the top three teams in each division. First-place teams will receive champion T-shirts for each player. Team trophies will be awarded for first and second.

Each team can give one representative in a Home Run Derby and a Throwing Accuracy Contest on Saturday night. Winners in each division will receive a trophy.

Deadline to enter was Tuesday, but late registrations will be accepted. Entry fee is $175 per team. The brochure and registration form are available at the Garden City Family YMCA or online at www.gardencity.net/ymca/youthsports.

For information, contact Sports Director Jackie Regan at (620) 275-1199 or gckymca.sports@gmail.com.

Diamondbacks post 12 runs in win over Royals

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Mark Reynolds finally got to Zack Greinke.

After striking out his first three times up, Reynolds homered off the Kansas City ace to get him out of the game and the Diamondbacks put up six more runs against the bullpen to beat the Royals 12-5 Wednesday night.

Reynolds brought his NL-leading strikeout total to 93 before taking Greinke deep to left with two out in the seventh for a 6-2 lead.

"He pitched me tough all night," Reynolds said. "I couldn't really get anything going with him in my first three ABs. You're battling your tail off to try to do something positive and he gets the best of you. It's really, really frustrating. He hung a slider and I was able to get good wood on it and hit it out.

"It seems like elite pitchers like that I'll punch out a couple of times and then somehow find the barrel. Those were big runs for our team and kind of opened the floodgates."

The Diamondbacks scored eight runs in the final three innings.
