Stars offer mixed atmosphere

Aries

You are passing under a confused atmosphere. In fact, you are not properly getting what is wrong and right or what you should and should not do. Boost your self-confidence. Control unlimited desires; it is not better to live in memories. Use intelligence and wisdom, and success will be yours. You should perform according to your talent and make the best use of this week.

Taurus

It will be a mixed week for you. You will have the finest sources of earning; however, you will also have heavy and sudden expenditures. Unexpected monetary gains are strongly indicated by the planets. It is also a favorable period for investments. You may invest in real estate and other profitable spheres. Your health will be fine during this time, and you will enjoy better health from now.

Gemini

The beginning of the week is very favorable. It is the right time to launch major new projects. Success will come very easily. Your zeal and enthusiasm will provide respect and monetary gains. Serviceman and businessman will experience great progress. Your attempts will bring happiness and prosperity. You will find unexpected cooperation and support from family, friends and relatives.

Cancer

During this week, your plans will be working to your content and you may have courage to overcome all types of problems. Financially, you will be in a commanding position. Money will come from every direction. If you are looking for a loan or other things, during this week your cherished wishes may be fulfilled. Those who are in the service or business will enjoy their personal and professional life.

Leo

This period indicates love, gain and pleasure through children.

Shannon O'Brien

• Weekly Horoscope

Your relations with children are going to be good and in general you'll get a lot of happiness from them. This is a time to gain desired benefits using your intelligence and creative abilities. You'd get the best results using your education now. If you are speculating, you could have some gains, but take care not to overdo it.

Virgo

During this week, the planets are transiting in your favor. That's why this week will be highly fortunate. Business and travel may be a source of gains. Wealth increases and you may have some elevation in your profession. Your domestic life will be comfortable and your health good. There may be a tendency for you to indulge in black magic or cheating.

Libra

Wealth and vehicles will be acquired and you may gain from lands and business. Generally you will have material comforts. Your mother will also enjoy comforts. The government, or those in high positions, may favor you. There is some chance of wasteful expenditure, dissociation of near and dear ones and instability of temper.

Scorpio

There may be arguments and conflicts with spouse and friends. The mind will be disturbed and distressed due to lack of money and peace. Expenditures will be excessive and there will be loss of money. There may be illness among your children. Abdominal and chest diseases may be a source of trouble. There will be fear from superiors, causing mental anguish, but there will be benefits from the government. You will suffer disappointments and loss of status and little mental poise will be available to you.

Sagittarius

Women in general will be favorable towards you. Earnings from business and travel will increase. You will have elevation in professional life and there will be gains from dealings in white-colored objects. However, you or your spouse may become ill.

Capricorn

During this week, your desired success and fame will be achieved at work. A new venture may yield profits. Reading and writing work may lead to fame and fortune and there will be success in examination – commerce, accounts, banking etc. – and interviews. Professions in medicine will beget fame. Help from spouse, children and close friends will yield happiness. Your health will be much better than earlier in August.

Aquarius

Your mind will gain sharpness. There will be progress in your education and knowledge. If appearing in an examination, you will succeed. There will be new friendships and sensuous pleasures. You will get happiness from children and support from relatives. There may be widespread fame, honor and prestige. Gains through the market, speculation and mutual funds are also possible.

Pisces

If unmarried, marriage may take place. Interest in sensuous pleasures will increase. There will be delight in merriment, music, dance, artistic fields and festivities. There will be easy flow of income. However, expenditures will be incurred on fancy items, ornaments and worldly pleasures. You will have a gain in health and valor. Travel and business will grant you wealth and your dignity and status will be enhanced. You will fulfill your desires.

Bake, sew for contest

The Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum is calling for entries for the Ike's Abilene Cooking and Quilting contests, Saturday, Sept. 19.

The cooking contest requires a modern interpretation of a recipe dating from Eisenhower's lifetime. Categories for cake, pie and cookies will be open to divisions, for youth 12 to 16 and adult. Postmark entries by Tuesday, Sept. 1.

A collection of historical cookbooks is available online at the Eisenhower library.

The quilting contest challenges crafters to create a wall hanging using the Evening Star pattern. There are traditional and modern categories, each with divisions for youth 17 and under and adult. Enroll by Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Volunteers to judge or help with the contests are welcome. The guidelines and entry forms for each competition are available on the web site at www.eisenhower.archives.gov. For information or an entry form, call the library at (785) 263-6700 or (877) RING IKE.
