Celebrate 2010 with flowering trees

Residents of Kansas who join the Arbor Day Foundation in January will receive 10 free flowering trees, part of the nonprofit foundation's Trees for America campaign.

Those who join in January will receive two each white flowering dogwoods, flowering crabapples, Washington hawthorns, American redbuds and golden rain trees.

"These compact trees are perfect for large or small spaces," said John Rosenow, chief executive of the foundation. "They will give ... the beauty of lovely pink, white, and yellow flowers – and also provide winter berries and

Farm records class in Hill City

As we get closer to tax time; it's time to think about farm record keeping, and good farm records are the key to a successful marketing plan.

If you are interested in learning more about farm record keeping and marketing, join Graham County Extension at 3 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 4, in the 4-H building on the fairgrounds in Hill City for an introduction to record keeping and farm marketing concepts. Terminology such as futures

Members also receive a subscription to the publication Arbor Day and "The Tree Book," which includes information about tree planting and care.

To become a member, send a $10 contribution to Ten Free Flowering Trees, Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, Neb., 68410, by Jan. 29. Kansas residents can also join online at www.arborday.org/january.

Rotary Club

The Colby Rotary Club met Tuesday, Jan. 12, at Colby Community College with 32 members and guests, including Andrew Toth and Kenny Wilk.

Officers and board members for 2010-2011 were elected. President is Nick Wells; vice-president, Connie Renner; secretary, Melany Wilks; treasurer, Nancy LePell. Board members are Mike Tubbs, Gene Rothfuss and Les Loker. Duties begin July 1.

Sara Bryan announced the annual Rotary Club Soup Supper will be held Tuesday, Feb. 16, in conjunction with the Colby-Goodland basketball games.

Kris Cameron had the program featuring Wilk, from the University of Kansas Hospital. He shared history of hospital and changes over the last 10 years which have made it a premier medical center. It is the only academic hospital in the state, he said.

Andrew Toth won Roto-Lotto. The club will meet at the Prairie Museum of Art and History on Tuesday.

Washington bloodmobile offers beer to donors

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — A Washington state blood center is offering donors a deal: Give a pint of blood, get a pint of beer. The News Tribune of Tacoma reported Monday that donors who are at least 21 years old are given a coupon for a free pint of beer. Pubs and restaurants must wait at least four hours after the drive ends before donors can collect.
