Joshua Adam Lee and Cody Lyn Kinsinger

Colby grad plans Great Bend wedding

Cody Lyn Kinsinger and Joshua Adam Lee plan to marry Saturday, June 12, 2010, at First Christian Church in Great Bend.

The bride is the daughter of George and Charlene Shulte of Spearville. She is a 1977 graduate of Spearville High School, and a 2002 graduate of Fort Hays State University. She teaches business in the Great Bend school district.

The groom is the son of John and Jeanene Lee of Colby. A 1999 graduate of Colby High School and a 2004 graduate of Kansas State University, he is a math teacher and coach in the Great Bend school district.

High school play to entertain Rexford

The Golden Plains High School play, "Foibles and Folly," will be performed at 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 6, at 9 a.m. Friday there will be a performance for the elementary and middle school students.

During Friday's basketball game the community was excited about seeing old friends and team members of the 1984-85 undefeated IA State Basketball Champions. All twelve team members were able to attend the reunion activities, along with managers and Coach Jerry Livingston. Jody Rogers was the Master of Ceremonies and did a great job for the 25th anniversary event.

Several in the community attended the wedding and reception of Courtney Albers and Ken McCarty on Jan. 23. It was a fantastic and fun night of eating, dancing, and merrymaking as we all celebrated with Courtney and Ken and their families. My daughter, Kristin Wark, of Mission, was one of the bridesmaids, and she brought with her a friend, Johnny Pheatt.

Corrections

An engagement announcement for Kallie Lee and Dane Olofson on Page 4 of the Monday, Feb. 1, Colby Free Press, was accompanied by the wrong photo. The couple pictured was actually Joshua Lee and Cody Kinsinger. Both announcements will be reprinted in their entirety. This was a composition error.

Deaths

Cheryl Ann Nebinski

Cheryl Ann Nebinski, 59, former Colby crossing guard, died Jan. 19, 2010, at her home in Colby.

She was born Feb. 4, 1950, in Kansas City, Mo., to Olis C. and Gladys L. (Manning) Rogers. She went to school in Littleton, Colo., and received her General Educational Development certificate in 1965. In 1984, she graduated from the University of Colorado.

In 1971 she married Donald Riggs in Denver. The had two children, and divorced in 1988.

In 1999, Cheryl married Vincent E. Nebinski in Brighton, Colo. They moved to Colby in 2003, where he worked for Murfin Drilling. Mrs. Nebinski was a crossing guard, affectionately known as the "dancing crossing guard" until her illness would not allow her to continue.

She loved to garden and enjoyed the mountains of Colorado. Her experiences as a certified scuba diver were a dream fulfilled.

Preceding her in death were her parents.

She is survived by her husband, Vincent Nebinski of the home; a son, Donald Riggs, Seattle; a daughter, Rachel Riggs, Denver; two brothers, John Rogers, Atwood, and David Rogers, Broomfield, Colo.; two sisters, Margaret Brenner, Frazier Park, Calif., and Patricia DiMaggio, Littleton, Colo.; and three grandchildren.

There will be a celebration service from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 6, 2010, at Harrison Chapel in Colby.

Rotary Club

Melinda Olson presented Denise Singer from the Smart Start program to the Colby Rotary club meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 26. Singer gave a presentation emphasizing the importance of early childhood education and the part child care plays in economic development in Kansas.

She said Smart Start is a non-profit agency started in 2001 to promote quality education in 11 northwest Kansas counties, funded by the Kansas Master Tobacco Settlement money.

President Jerry Arensdorf reported on the Rotary mid-year district meeting held in Colby at the college campus, where the Colby club was recognized for meeting their 2009 Polio Plus commitment.

The week's Roto-Loto winner was Les Loker.
