Holocaust presentation to focus on post-war effects

Teachers nationwide are invited to enroll in a week-long workshop, Monday through Friday, June 7 to 11, at the Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum, featuring themes presented in the "Eisenhower and the Righteous Cause: The Liberation of Europe" exhibit opening May 24.

"In the classroom, the study of the Holocaust often ends with the arrival of the liberators and an end to unimaginable human suffering" said Kim Barbieri, education specialist at the museum. "This workshop picks up and examines the rest of the story, which ... will be of great benefit to the teaching of this chapter of world history."

Workshop presenters will include experts from the Midwest Center for Holocaust Education, the Lowell Milken Center, and two presidential libraries. Topics will focus on the aftermath of the Holocaust, including the liberation of concentration camps, displaced persons camps, the creation of Israel, the Nuremberg Trials and creating lessons and projects that teach respect for all people.

The workshop is presented by the Eisenhower library and museum, Abilene, and the Midwest Center for Holocaust Education, Overland Park, in partnership with the Lowell Milken Center, Fort Scott, and the Harry S. Truman Library and Museum, Independence, Mo.

Registration is $100. Information and a registration form are available at www.eisenhower.archives.gov or by e-mail at kim.barbieri@nara.gov or by telephone at (785) 263-6700 or (877) RING IKE. Enrollment is limited to the first 35 who apply.

Salsa poisoner helped hubbie

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A 19-year-old Kansas woman has admitted putting poison in salsa that sickened patrons at a Mexican restaurant where she worked in Johnson County.

Yini De La Torre of Shawnee pleaded guilty Tuesday to one federal count of conspiracy to tamper with a consumer product.

De La Torre admitted adding pesticide twice to salsa she prepared at the Mi Ranchito restaurant in Lenexa.

Twelve customers became ill last Aug. 11 after eating the tainted salsa and 36 people fell sick from the salsa on Aug. 30.

De La Torre said her husband, Arnoldo Bazan, had her poison the salsa to get even with the owner for suspending him from another Mi Ranchito where he worked. The husband is awaiting trial.
