Student group helps Haiti survivors cope

The International Students and shipment." Friends Organization at Colby Community College has worked for several weeks on a project to help victims of the earthquake in Haiti.

The group conducted a drive to collect basic hygiene items for those affected by the devastation.

"Although it's been two months since the earthquake occurred, the need for hygiene items continues," said advisor Connie Davis. "We have been working with an agency that assists in disaster situations around the world. The students publicized the need, collected donations and assembled the kits for approximately $720.

Colby Community College will hold a free Non- traditional careers from 9:30 to 10 a.m. traditional Occupations Fair for career and technical education from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, April 17, in the Northwest Kansas Cultural Arts Center.

Representatives from several programs at the college will be on hand with information and to answer questions about schools and application procedures.

Programs to be featured include nursing, physical therapist assistant, therapeutic massage therapy, dental hygiene, criminal justice, communications, business technology, business management, veterinary technology, agriculture business, horse production and beef production/feedlot certification.

Everyone is invited to the event, which will include short presentations by current students pursuing non-

College buildings will be open for tours and participants can visit the college farm east of town. Teachers will be in their classroom and office areas to meet with potential students. The afternoon will include an opportunity to attend Trojans' baseball and softball games on campus.

"This event is designed to increase awareness of these occupations for high school and nontraditional perspective students," said director Chriss Ellison. "It will be very student oriented, with representatives from each area, as well as printed materials, available for those who attend."

For information, call Ellison at 460-4692.
