Musical Friday features church-basement ladies

A new musical comedy, "Church Basement Ladies," a large-production celebration of the kitchen in the church basement and the women who work there, will be performed at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Oakley High School Auditorium.
 The comedy features four distinct characters and their relationships as they organize the food and solve the problems of a rural Minnesota church in 1965.
 From the elderly matriarch to the young bride-to-be, we see them handle a Christmas dinner, the funeral of a dear friend, a "Hawaiian Easter" fund raiser, and a steaming hot July wedding. They stave off disasters, debate recipes, instruct the young, and keep the pastor on course. Audiences will recognize these ladies as they see the church year unfold from below the house of God.

 The script, by Jessica Zuehlke and Jim Stowell, is based on the novel "Growing Up Lutheran" by Janet Letnes Martin and Suzann Nelson. Music and lyrics are by composer Drew Jansen, who also wrote "How to Talk Minnesotan." Admission for the evening is by Western Plains Arts Association season ticket, or at the door, $20 for adults and $10 for students.
