

Bishop, musician to speak at assembly

Two prominent speakers will be featured at the Diocesan Assembly in Hays on Sunday, June 6, sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Salina.

Bishop Emeritus Joseph Charron, Des Moines, Iowa, will give the key address and famed Catholic musician John Angotti will perform and lead a session for teens.

Salina Bishop Paul S. Coakley invites all people from his 86 parishes to the assembly, which will begin at 1 p.m. at Beach-Schmidt Auditorium on the campus of Fort Hays State University, followed by a Eucharistic procession to Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, 500 E. 19th St., where Mass will be celebrated. The day will end with fellowship and with food provided by various ethnic groups from the diocese.

The diocese has been working to prepare and begin implementing "Stewards of Hope: A Pastoral Plan for the Diocese of Salina," which will be presented at the meetings.

"In these challenging times this plan is to nourish hope and strengthen people's understanding of the mission of the church," Bishop Coakley said. To accomplish this goal, "Stewards of Hope" invites people to lead holy lives regardless of their vocation.

Extra care needed around motorcycles

With the warmer temperatures and summer right around the corner, Kansans may have noticed more motorcycles on the roads. As a precursor to what is normally the beginning of the riding season, federal, state, and local organizations are recognizing the month of May as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month.

"Too many motorcycle riders have been injured or killed on the state's roadways, the past few years," Patrol Superintendent Colonel Terry Maple, said. "We would like to see this trend cease. It is the responsibility of both motorcycle operators and the drivers of other vehicles to drive defensively and safely share the road."

Motorcycles can present more dangers to their riders than passenger cars and trucks because there is less protection around a rider's body to keep them safe from injury, should they be involved in a crash. The chance of head injuries increases dramatically for those riders not wearing a helmet. National data indicates that approximately 80 percent of motorcycle crashes injure or kill a rider, while only 20 percent of passenger car crashes injure or kill an occupant.

In Kansas in 2008, there were 45 motorcycle operators/riders killed in crashes, and 1,086 injured. There were 1,138 total crashes involving motorcycles in 2008.

To help keep motorcyclists safe on our roadways, follow these tips:

- Remember motorcycles have all of the rights and privileges of any other motor vehicle on the roadway.

- Always allow a motorcyclist the full lane width - never try to share a lane.
- Always look for motorcycles by checking mirrors and blind spots before entering or leaving a lane of traffic and at intersections.
- Always signal your intentions before changing lanes or merging with traffic.
- Don't be fooled by a flashing turn signal on a motorcycle. Motorcycle signals are often not self-canceling, and riders sometimes forget to turn them off. Wait to be sure the motorcycle is turning before you proceed.
- Remember that road conditions that are minor annoyances to other vehicles pose major hazards to motorcyclists.

South Korean earns drivers license on 960th try

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) - A South Korean woman who earned a driver's license after 960 tries is ready to buy a car and get behind the wheel.

Yonhap news agency reported

Thursday that 69-year-old Cha Sa-soon passed the driving part of the test last month on her 10th try. South Korea requires a written test first, and Cha took it nearly daily since April 2005 before passing last year.

Yonhap quoted her as saying she wanted to buy a small secondhand car to visit her son and daughter and for her business selling vegetables.

Repeated calls seeking comment from her went unanswered.

Officials at the drivers' license agency in Jeonju, 130 miles (210 kilometers) south of Seoul, were not available for comment.
