Another complaint workers had was that the last time trainers were in the courthouse, one of them was on her cell phone the entire time and did nothing to help them.

"We paid for someone to sit there on their cell phone the entire time," Mann said.

Applebury showed the commissioners the amounts of extra paper it takes to run a report on the new system compared to the old one. She said she has even had to create a manual spread sheet for some of the reports, and added that she doesn't see any relief in sight.

County Appraiser Mary Chec told the commissioners she needs to hire another person because George Overton is retiring, but he will help them out part time until the end of the year after he recuperates from surgery. He will be working on a contract as needed next year. She said her budget can handle it to the end of the year.

She invited everyone to a retirement reception for Overton from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, July 28, in the appraiser's office.

victory for the U.S. in eight years, gave the Americans first place in Group C. With just its fifth shut-out in World Cup play, the United States (1-0-2) won a group for the first time since 1930 and will face the runner-up from Group D on Saturday.

After his U.S. record 44th international goal, Donovan joyously ran to the corner flag, sliding headfirst in a belly flop, and his teammates ran down the touchline to mob him. Donovan was in tears when the game ended and the United States had moved into the second round.

"Clint made a good run in the middle, the ball fell to me ... time kind of stopped," Donovan said. "You can't miss from there."

As the final whistle sounded, the U.S. bench raced onto the field and piled on top of the players on the far sideline. At midfield, Steve Cherundolo and Jay DeMerit collapsed to the ground. They all bearhugged Donovan, who with his fourth World Cup goal tied Bert Patenaude (1930) as the American leader.

"That was a really special feeling," U.S. coach Bob Bradley said. "These guys put a lot into it, they never quit."

"We're proud. We finished first in our group. Five points, didn't lose a match. So we're ready."

As the team returned to the sideline, goalkeeper Tim Howard bounced up and down in elation. Benny Feilhaber took a water bottle and sprayed his teammates, champagne-like.

"We're not done yet," Donovan said. "We believe, man. We're alive, baby."

England (1-0-2), which beat Slovenia moments earlier, also had five points but finished second because the U.S. scored four goals to two for the English. Slovenia (1-1-1) was third with four points, missing advancing because of Donovan's heroics. Algeria (0-2-1) was last with one point.

Until Donovan's goal, it appeared the officiating would again be the focus.

Dempsey put the ball in the net in the 21st minute off the rebound of Herculez Gomez's shot. But the goal was called offside, just as Maurice Edu's late goal was disallowed against Slovenia last week, a score that would have given the Americans a victory. Replays appeared to show Dempsey was on-side.

Dempsey had another great chance in the 57th minute when Michael Bradley stole the ball and sent Altidore streaking down the right side. Altidore crossed, but

Businesses to challenge smoking ban

By John Hanna
Associated Press Writer

The Wichita-area businesses argue the law restricts customers' right to associate with whom they choose and denies the businesses equal protection of the law, guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution's 14th Amendment. They want a judge to intervene and block the law's enforcement.

"Equal protection is probably the primary issue," said Topeka attorney Tuck Duncan, who is representing the four businesses.

Duncan's clients operate Bingo Royale in Haysville, several Bingo Palace sites in Wichita and HEAT bars and Shooters billiard clubs in Wichita. They filed a motion to intervene in an existing lawsuit in Shawnee County District Court.

That lawsuit, filed earlier this month by a private Tonganoxie club, challenged only one provision of the anti-smoking law that allows some clubs to avoid the smoking ban. It specifically did not attack the rest of the law.

TOPEKA — Four Wichita-area business operators have gone to court to prevent Kansas from banning smoking in many public places, partly because its new law contains an exemption for state-owned casinos.

Their attorney said Monday that the law is unconstitutional because it treats similar businesses differently. Starting July 1, smoking will be banned in most public places, including bars and restaurants, and in some private clubs, though not all of them.

Critics have pointed out repeatedly that smoking still will be allowed in the gambling areas of up to four new casinos to be built and operated by private developers for the Kansas Lottery. Smoking will be banned in bingo parlors.

Dempsey's hit the goalpost. He shot wide on the rebound.

Howard earned the first shutout in World Cup play for the U.S. since the 2-0 victory over Mexico in the second round in 2002.

The U.S. kept up its pattern of good and bad World Cups. The Americans were knocked out in the first round in 1990, 1998 and 2006, but went to the second round in 1994 and reached the quarterfinals in 2002.

With former President Bill Clinton watching from the stands at Loftus Versfeld, a pro-American, vuvuzela-blowing crowd filled the old rugby stadium. Donovan and Dempsey all had numerous chances in the first half but either misfired or were stopped by Bolhi.

place of Jose Torres and Gomez, who made the World Cup roster in a surprise, started at forward for Robbie Findley, suspended for yellow card accumulation.

Algeria was making its third World Cup appearance following first-round elimination in 1982 and 1986.

While the U.S. had eight shots on goal to three for Algeria, the Americans were on the edge until the very end.

Finally, though, Donovan connected.
