Yankees slugger hits No. 599

NEW YORK (AP) – Alex Rodriguez hit his 599th home run, Derek Jeter had an inside-the-park shot and the New York Yankees beat the Kansas City Royals 10-4 Thursday on a strange night in the Bronx.

Jorge Posada had a go-ahead double and a bizarre throwing error that cost New York a run. But the Yankees rebounded to help CC Sabathia (13-3) win his ninth straight decision.

Rodriguez, who had four RBIs, hit a solo homer to right field in the seventh inning, putting New York ahead 6-4 and leaving him one shy of becoming the seventh major league player to reach 600.

The slugger came up again with a chance for No. 600 in the eighth. He smacked an RBI double and was pulled for a pinch runner. Jeter's deep drive in the third off Bruce Chen (5-4) settled in center fielder David DeJesus' glove, but he ran into the padded fence with his arm extended in front of him.

His glove and wrist twisted back and the ball popped out as DeJesus fell.

Runner qualifies for nationals

Incoming Colby High sophomore Beau Brown qualified for a national tournament in the 100-yard dash and the 4-by-100 relay race on June 27 in Brighton, Colo.

He ran the 100-yard dash in 11.7 seconds and his relay team finished in 45.2. Brown said he thought he had a good chance at making nationals going into the qualifier. He said the key to doing well in races is getting a good start and using good form.

Brown played three sports during his first high school year: football, wrestling and track and field.

Brown ran for several touchdowns last season. He estimated he scored about 16 rushing touchdowns for the freshman and junior varsity football teams.

Coach Chris Gardner said Brown looked great at football camp and he's had a heck of a summer in the weight room.

"He's getting bigger and stronger," Gardner said. "He has a tremendous work ethic."

Brown also qualified for the state tournament in track in the 100-meter dash.

He will be running at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, Aug. 1, at Myrtle Beach, Va.

Rockies lose fifth out of seven games

MIAMI (AP) – Ronny Paulino hit the winning single with the bases loaded and none out in the ninth inning to give Florida a 3-2 victory. Rockies have lost five out of seven games since the All-Star break.

Pinch hitter Emilio Bonifacio hit his first triple of the year to start the bottom of the ninth against Jhoulys Chacin (5-8), and Paulino brought him home after two intentional walks.

Florida's Josh Johnson struck out 11 in 6 1-3 innings and allowed only one run, on a homer by Ian Stewart in the second inning.

Johnson lowered his ERA to 1.61, best in the majors.

Colorado tied the game in the eighth, but Leo Nunez (4-2) struck out the side in the ninth.
