Gone from fishin'

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A Tennessee man on probation for a dozen hunting violations has been sent to jail for nearly two years after he was caught fishing under a false name in neighboring Georgia.

The Tennessean newspaper reported Thursday that Georgia wildlife agents were tipped by their Tennessee counterparts that 31-year-old Kurt Wesley Ellis was fishing for trout in north Georgia with a license obtained under a false name.

Ellis, from Cleveland in south-east Tennessee, was banned from hunting or fishing on state property for at least 20 years after pleading guilty last year to 12 hunting violations. He served a short jail stint and was on probation.

Because Tennessee is part of an enforcement deal called the Wildlife Violator's Compact, those same restrictions apply in 33 other states, officials said.

To the Citizens of Graham, Sheridan, Sherman & Thomas Counties,

On Tuesday, August 3, you have an opportunity to make sure Northwest Kansas has true conservative leadership in the Kansas House of Representatives by re-electing Rep. Jim Morrison in the District 121 Republican primary election.

This letter is not initiated by Rep. Morrison – rather, we're his Republican colleagues in the Legislature who wish him well as he faces surgery soon. We believe his re-election in the primary on Aug. 3 would surely be good medicine for him.

Though Rep. Morrison may not be able to contact each of you personally this campaign, we want you to know that his continued leadership is needed in the Legislature.

Rep. Jim Morrison has been fighting to protect your hard-earned tax dollars, property and jobs in his outstanding service in the Legislature. Rep. Morrison voted against the $1.5 billion tax increase passed in the Legislature this year.

Rep. Morrison advocates fiscal responsibility, family and pro-life values, and policies that encourage job growth and personal freedoms. You will again be well served by re-electing Rep. Jim Morrison in the Aug. 3 Republican primary.

In the 2010 session, Rep. Morrison was Chairman of the Government Efficiency and Fiscal Oversight Committee – and we need him to continue his leadership in that role. Kansas again faces unprecedented budget challenges, and Rep. Morrison's experience, knowledge and prudent leadership are the best way to assure Kansans of a state government that works for them and respects each and every tax dollar.

We appreciate your support of Rep. Morrison and hope that your vote ensures his return to his important work for your community and the state of Kansas.

Respectfully,

- Rep. Mike O'Neal – Speaker of the House
- Rep. Anthony Brown – Chair, Financial Institutions Committee
- Rep. Steven Brunk – Chair, Commerce and Labor Committee
- Rep. Peter DeGraaf – Vice-Chair, Joint Committee on Children's Issues
- Rep. Owen Donohoe – Vice-Chair, Economic Development and Tourism Committee
- Rep. John Faber - Chair, Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee
- Rep. Mario Goico – Vice-Chair, Veterans, Military and Homeland Security Committee
- Rep. Carl Holmes – Chair, Energy & Utilities Committee
- Rep. Mike Kiegerl – Vice-Chair, Joint Committee on Children's Issues
- Rep. Lance Kinzer – Chair, Judiciary Committee
- Rep. Forrest Knox – Vice-Chair, Energy and Utilities Committee
- Rep. Brenda Landwehr – Chair, Health and Human Services Committee
- Rep. Joe McLeland – Chair, Education Budget Committee
- Rep. Ray Merrick – House Majority Leader
- Rep. Don Myers - Chair, Veterans, Military and Homeland Security Committee
- Rep. Connie O'Brien – Aging and Long-Term Care Committee
- Rep. Larry Powell – Chair, Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee
- Rep. Sharon Schwartz - Chair, Select Committee on KPERS
- Rep. Arlen Siegfried – Chair, Interstate Cooperation Committee
- Rep. Joe Siewert – Joint Committee on Economic Development

Rep. Morrison also recently served on the Kansas House Health & Human Services Committee, and on the Joint Committee on Information Technology. He is endorsed by the Kansas Chamber of Commerce, Kansas Farm Bureau, the Kansas NRA, Americans For Prosperity and Kansans for Life.

Rep. Morrison's work in the Legislature has saved Kansans millions of dollars and protected property owners, businesses and families. See a much larger list of Rep. Morrison's accomplishments here: www.morrisonfamily.com/repjim/biography/biography.htm
