

Time to retreat and get creative

Aries (March 21 – April 20)
You have an opportunity to retreat into your cave where your more ingenious ideas are created. There is personal, relationship and professional pressure, along with opportunities. Over the weekend things start falling into place on multiple fronts.

• Weekly Horoscope

Taurus (April 21 – May 21)
Your luck lies in keeping your imagination inspired and trusting your intuition, so while the tendency will be to rush at things, listen to your intuition. Life won't be all work and no play though. Pacing yourself is essential. You can have it all, just not all at once.

Gemini (May 22 – June 21)
The professional pendulum is swinging your way, but the surge on the romantic and creative front is not slowing down for anything. Open communications, especially at home. This is our last tough week before things start improving dramatically.

Cancer (June 22 – July 22)
You've had to balance conflicting forces on home and career fronts. What is possible now is a real breakthrough in both areas, along with balance. Life gives you some unexpected breaks on the financial or travel fronts.

Leo (July 23 – Aug. 22) There has been almost continuous activity in your sign since October. Take yourself and your needs seriously, recognizing that the buck stops with you.

Virgo (Aug. 23 – Sept. 23) Instead of chiding yourself for daydreaming when you think you should be productive, appreciate that those moments are valuable. You're reflecting and summing things up but also looking ahead. Let your mind and your imagination wander as it will. Your best moments are likely to be when you're doing nothing at all.

Libra (Sept. 24 – Oct. 23) Your professional drought is over, but the break this has given you has been invaluable. Make sure the momentum gained in your personal life and on the friendship, social and relationship fronts isn't forgotten. Don't let things slide on the friendship, home, personal and relationship fronts.

Scorpio (Oct. 24 – Nov. 22) Recognize this is the last frantic week and do what has to be done, while keeping your sanity. You can't afford to drop the ball on the professional front, which is why there's pressure, but you'll be more effective if you pace yourself and take pit stops.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23 – Dec. 21) Your biggest problem this week is that there are no problems, only opportunities or imagined troubles. You've become too used to pressure. If there are pressures it will be on the romantic and friendship fronts, with the things you've put on hold wanting your attention.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 – Jan. 20) There is a lot of intensity on the financial and professional fronts, but also some unexpected gems. Be aware of what you want, with the dream alive and your feet on the ground. A professional breakthrough is likely. You'll finally crack work/life balance issues with win/win solutions.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 – Feb. 19) A lot of water has passed under the bridge that needs to be resolved. This could create some relationship and personal pressure, but at the same time there's a chance for a communication breakthrough. There's liberation and freedom in the air.

Pisces (Feb. 20 – March 20) Things are coming to a head at work and financially, with pressure and challenges, but luck offers a potential breakthrough. Financial and income sectors are in conflict. A sense of urgency at work is about making sure that things are on the right track, moving in the right direction. Don't shut others out.

Police car dismantled for cat

VIENNA (AP) – This little kitty went home – but only after Vienna police and firefighters partially dismantled a police car to find it.

The naughty feline first woke residents of a Vienna neighborhood with its desperate meowing, then kept police and firefighters busy for much of the night.

She was found under the hood of a car but eluded her rescuers' grasp. The kitten took cover under several other cars before seemingly disappearing – except for her meow.

Firefighters and police finally struck paydirt after jacking up a police cruiser, then following the sound and tracing the wayward kitty to a space inside the vehicle's floor panel. But it took half an hour of elbow grease before the critter was nabbed and taken to an animal shelter.

But not before having the last meow.

"It bit my finger!" said firefighter Franz Zehetmeier, who finally collared the cat.
