Blood drive coming before Labor Day

The American Red Cross plans a blood drive from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 2, at the Colby Community Building, 285 E. Fifth.

Over the long Labor Day weekend, swimming pools will be open and many people will be making one last outing away from home, said Terri Dunaway, chief executive officer of the American Red Cross, Central Plains Region. That could translate into more accidents and an increase in the need for emergency blood at area hospitals.

"It's an old saying, but unfortunately it's still true that the need for blood never takes a holiday," said Dunaway, "and over these long summer holidays, the Red Cross requests the community's help. If you are eligible to donate, the Red Cross urges you to give blood before starting your holiday to be sure blood is on hospital shelves when it's needed."

On average, the Red Cross says, someone in America needs blood every two seconds, and your one donation has the potential to save up to three lives. Those could be the lives of your family, or a friend or neighbor.

To reserve time to donate, call (800) RED-CROSS, or (800) 733-2767, or go to redcrossblood.org. All blood types are needed. A blood donor card or driver's license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in.

Donors must be in general good health, weigh at least 110 pounds and be at least 17 years old (16 with a completed parental consent form). New height and weight restrictions apply to donors younger than 19.

Inmate sues victim

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A Florida inmate is suing the man whose vehicle he's convicted of burglarizing, claiming the man and two others roughed him up during a "citizen's arrest."

Michael Dupree is serving a 12-year sentence for burglary and cocaine possession stemming from a 2007 break-in of a van in St. Petersburg. Dupree allegedly stole a bicycle locked inside and was apprehended after the owner, Anthony McKoy, saw him with the bike down the street.

Dupree says McKoy and two others pointed a gun at him, handcuffed him and placed a knee painfully in his back. He's seeking $500,000 for disabilities and distress suffered during the take-down.

Dupree filed the civil lawsuit on his own, without the help of a lawyer.

After being served with the suit, McKoy said, "I thought it was a joke. I'm the victim."
