Patrol graduate new troopers

On Thursday, the Kansas Highway Patrol's 20 newest troopers graduate from the Training Academy in Salina after undergoing five months of training, ready to be stationed throughout the state.

"This is an exciting time for the patrol," Superintendent Col. Terry Maple said. "These new troopers will hit the road and have been assigned to areas where we've needed more help for quite some time. We haven't graduated a class from the academy since 2008, and it is long overdue."

Due to budget, this is the first training class the Patrol has had since the 10 members of Class No. 48 graduated in December 2008. Last year, the patrol was awarded a federal stimulus grant from the U.S. Department of Justice to create a Domestic Highway Enforcement Team to help combat crime on the rural and Interstate highways of Kansas. With the creation of this team, and moving team members to the newly created unit, the money originally used for their salaries then went toward hiring and training a new class.

Training covers topics including car stops, Kansas law, physical training, firearms and more. Following graduation, the new troopers will do 70 days of field training with experience troopers in the areas where they will be stationed.
