at the Legion Hall at 5 p.m.
 The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs says the observance of Veterans Day on Nov. 11 began as early as 1918. The treaty ending World War I was signed at the Palace of Versailles in France in 1918. The armistice ending hostilities between the Allied nations and Germany went into effect "at the 11th hour, of the 11th day of the 11th month" on Nov. 11 of that year. For that reason, Nov. 11 was generally regarded as the end of "the war to end all wars."
 In November 1919, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Nov. 11 as Armistice Day, declaring it a legal holiday. The flag was to be flown on all government buildings, and the president invited citizens to observe the day in schools, churches and other places with "appropriate ceremonies of friendly relations with all other peoples."
 Armistice Day was made a legal holiday by an act of Congress in 1938, dedicated to the cause of world peace, to be observed as a day set aside to honor veterans of World War I.
 In 1954, after World War II had required the greatest mobilization of soldiers, sailors, Marines and airmen in the nation's history; after the war in Korea; and at the urging of the 83rd Congress and the veterans' organizations, President Dwight D. Eisenhower issued a proclamation of "Veterans Day," and the law searched wars and memorials and found several teachers and staff at Golden Plains who are veterans. The students have put together a Power Point presentation from their research, which will be shown at the assembly, she said.

 Brewster students will begin their day Thursday with a flag-raising ceremony at 8:15 a.m. in front of the school and a flag burning, where an old flag will be retired. Following the ceremony will be an assembly with several Brewster-area veterans.
 The school will honor U.S. Army Capt. Jason McMahon, a former Brewster student, who was killed in action in Afghanistan in September.

was amended by striking out the work "Armistice" and inserting the word "Veterans" in it's place.
 The public is invited to help honor the veterans of Thomas County and surrounding areas, on Thursday, as they march down Franklin Ave.

College student enjoys radio work

eyesight prevents him from doing this, so he does his broadcasts in a different way: He records what he wants to say before the broadcast and listens to the recording while he's on the air so he always knows what to say. Rice said he hopes to be a sports broadcaster for a commercial radio station after he graduates from college.

Rice said his interest in radio blossomed when he took an Introduction to Radio Broadcasting class during his freshman year at Garden City High School. He said he took more advanced classes during his junior and senior years. Rice became the first student to announce the starting lineup for the Garden City girls varsity basketball team his senior year.

Not only does Rice do broadcasts for the college, he also plays drums for the concert and pep band. He said he started playing drums in the fifth grade and played for Garden City High's marching and concert bands. He was named the most inspirational member of the band his senior year.

Rice said he also is interested in radio theater. He will be playing the character Jacob Marley, Ebenezer Scrooge's old business partner, when the college's drama department puts on the Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," over the radio.

Vyzourek will be recording the show. He said the Drama Department didn't have enough props to do a play onstage, so they decided to do the play over the radio. Rice's mother Betty Rice said she took drama in high school and acted in community theater, but he's never done it on the radio.

Rice said he enjoys different aspects of radio, including music and sports. He said he likes country and western, and two of his favorite musicians are Zac Brown and Tim McGraw.

Rice said his favorite sports are football and basketball. He said he enjoys watching Kansas State football and his favorite professional basketball teams are the Chicago Bulls and the Phoenix Suns.

Rice first learned some of the things that go into being a disk jockey when he job-shadowed Nikki Marcotte, a disc jockey for 1350 KMAN in Manhattan, when she was performing at the Kansas Leadership Forum's 10th anniversary dance. The forum is an advocacy group for disabled youths between 18 and 25 that Rice has been involved with for the past couple years.

Rice said everyone at his high school had to do a career or community-related project their senior year. For his project, he did a podcast on disability awareness. His mother said he did all the editing and recording.

The podcast Rice made influenced the broadcast teacher so much, he incorporated it into his to celebrate the 100 years Colby has been using public power.

Decided to approve paying contractor APAC-Kansas $461,514 for paving on South Range Avenue from Interstate 70 to north of College Drive. The city will also pay Pacific Environmental Corp. $40,000 for inspection of the work. Armstrong said the state will reimburse the city for 75 percent of the costs.

Authorized Oppenheimer & Co. to take bids for the sale of $1.6 million in bonds for paving and rebuilding Willow Drive in front of Bosselman's Truck Stop between Country Club Drive and the east side of Bosselman's. The paving project will be paid for with money borrowed for general obligation bonds that will be repaid by sales tax money earned in a Tax Increment Finance District covering the Bosselman's and Hampton Inn development, all owned by Bosselman's.

The district was established when Bosselman's Truck Stop was annexed by the city, covering two lots: one with Bosselman's and Wendy's and the Hampton Inn lot.

State to face deficit

The latest forecast, issued by state officials and university economists, isn't so bad. The forecasters boosted projections for tax collections by 0.7 percent, predicting 4.3 percent growth in state revenue for fiscal 2012.

Outgoing Budget Director Duane Goossen even produced a profile for the general fund, the state's main bank account, that projected no deficit. It would require the state to transfer highway money and gambling revenue into the general fund to ease cuts in education or social services.

Outgoing Gov. Mark Parkinson and his fellow Democrats have said for months that the state budget is now on a solid foundation as the economy starts to grow. They hope Kansans don't think Parkinson is leaving behind budget problems and want them to see the tax increase as necessary to stabilizing the state's finances.
