Trojans lose at home

Men's team struggles on offense

By Andy Heintz
Colby Free Press
aheintz@nwkansas.com

The Trojans men's basketball team just couldn't get much to fall in a 57-46 loss to Garden City on Monday at the Community Building.

The Colby College team's shooting woes, combined with a big rebounding disparity, proved to be too much for the Trojans to overcome. The Trojans shot 16 for 61, about 26 percent were outrebounded 41-27. All those rebounds hurt the Colby team.

"They got a lot of second opportunities in the second half," coach Dustin Pfeifer said. "They got extra shots at important times."

The Trojans held the Broncbusters to about 38 percent from the field overall, but Garden City shot about 58 percent in the second half.

Sophomore Terrell Bruce led the team in scoring with 10 points, including two crucial three-pointers that gave Colby a chance to win in the final minutes. The sophomore's two threes turned an 8-point deficit into a 2-point game.

Neither team got off to a hot start on offense. Freshman Kevin Jefferson knifed through Garden City's defense and made a layup, giving Colby a 4-3 lead early in the first half. This remained the score for 7 1/2 minutes into the half.

Sophomore Michael Morris fell to the floor clutching his ankle early in the half and had to be helped off the court. He returned a few minutes later, but the fall appeared to hinder his jumping ability. Pfeifer said Morris is OK and will play through the injury, adding that he practiced the next day.

Later on, freshman Carson Konrade knocked down two three-pointers to make it 14-5 Colby. Then the Trojans went through a phase where they just couldn't get anything to fall, allowing the Broncbusters to go on a 10-0 run.

Mike Morales of Garden City grabbed a rebound and put it back in while getting fouled, tying the game at 14. He completed the old fashioned three-point play by making his free throw. Freshman Marty Wendel knocked down a jumper from the right elbow, ending Colby's drought and tying the game at 16. Freshman Vincent Dillard scored inside while drawing a foul with 1:15 left in the half. He made the free throw and the Trojans led 21-18. Colby led 23-18 at the half.

Bruce knocked down a three pointer and freshman Hurley Johnson drilled a jumper early in the half. Morris grabbed a rebound and scored while drawing contact from a defender, tying the game at 36 with 9:38 left. He made his free throw to put Colby up by one.

Later on, the Broncbusters' Jarward Rheubottom scored two quick buckets to make it 44-39 Garden

City with 6:27 left. The Broncbusters extended their lead to 47-39 before a three by Bruce narrowed the gap to 5. Bruce drilled another three-pointer about a minute later to make it 47-45.

Garden City scored the next four points to go up by 6 with 1:38 left. The Broncbusters hit some free throws down the stretch and picked up a 57-46 win.

Dillard had 6 points and Morris and Johnson chipped in 5 each. With the loss, Colby dropped to 10-9 and 1-4 in the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference.

They will play Butler County Community College at 7:30 p.m. tonight in El Dorado.

Athletes succeed in classes

Fourteen Colby Community College student athletes have been named to the Kansas Jayhawk Community College All-Academic 2010 fall teams.

To be selected, athletes must have a grade average of 3.5 or higher. Eight Trojans earned a perfect 4.0 average.

Lady Trojan volleyball freshman Kamee Benish from Sharon Springs; Ashley McMullen, Burwell, Neb.; Rachel Montgomery, Boise, Idaho; J'Nae Raynor, Colorado Springs; and Jennifer Watkins, Houston; and Sophomores Danqi Li, China; Vanessa Loya, El Paso, Texas; and Emily Lubbers, Yuma, Colo., all made the team.

Freshman Erica Rappard, Overland Park, was named as a member of the women's cross country and half-marathon teams.

Freshman Ross Freeman, Australia, sophomores Garrett Jones, Lecompton and Wesley Toews, Ithica, Mich., and freshman Raymond Velazquez, San Antonio, were selected as members of the men's cross country team.

Jones was also selected for the men's half-marathon team.

Benisch, Loya, McMullen, Raynor, Freeman, Toews, Velazquez and Jones all had straight-A averages.
