

Alferd Packer Band to play Sunday at Hoxie High School

The Western Plains Arts Association invites you to hear the Alferd Packer Memorial String Band at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Hoxie High School Auditorium.

The band says it performs a lively, engaging stage show that involves the audience and includes their own musical traditions. Members' 1870s costuming and raucous humor complement their performances of old-time string-band, bluegrass and American folk music.

The group comprises five members singing and playing fiddles, banjo, guitars, mandolin, hammered dulcimer, accordion, bass, shotgun and washboard. Their good humor and energy leave no toe untapped.

The band takes its name from the Colorado gold prospector and guide turned cannibal, Alferd Packer, the only American ever convicted of cannibalism. In the fall of 1870, five miners in Packer's charge headed for the Colorado gold fields. Caught in winter storms, they ended up in Alferd's stomach.

At the conclusion of the trial, legend has it, the judge said, "Alferd Packer, you voracious man-eater, there were only seven Democrats in Hinsdale County, and you done it five of 'em."

Admission is with Western Plains season ticket or at the door, adults $10, students $5.

The Alferd Packer Memorial String Band's 1870s costuming and humor complement their performances of old-time musicpp.
