

Deaths

JoAnne Vaughn

JoAnne Vaughn, 78, Colby, former co-owner of the Colby Livestock Auction, died Wednesday, Jan. 4, 2012, at Citizens Medical Center in Colby.

She was born June 12, 1933, in Rexford, the second child of Albert and Maude (Rhothen) Garrett; she grew up in Rexford. In 1951 she graduated from Rexford High School. During her high school years she participated in sports, cheerleading and riding horses. She also graduated from Clark Business School in Denver.

On Dec. 28, 1951, she married Norris Vaughn. They lived in several places through the years before the settled on a farm south of Selden.

In 1967 they moved to Colby after purchasing the Colby Livestock Auction. After building a successful business they sold the auction in 1983 and worked together in several other agriculture-related businesses. After his death in 1991 she continued running the family business with her son Steve.

She also owned and managed the Carousel Beauty Salon with her daughter Judy Harger for many years.

An active member of the Colby United Methodist Church, she taught numerous Sunday School classes, along with volunteering at the hospital and several other community organizations. Still an active board member of the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Council, she enjoyed dancing, golf, bowling and bridge.

Preceding her in death were her husband, her parents, and her husband's parents, John and Gladys Vaughn.

Survivors include two sons, Steve (Linda) Vaughn, Colby; and Chuck (Rhonda) Vaughn, Topeka; two daughters, Janet (Joe) Johnson, Bertrand, Neb.; and Judy (Howard) Harger, Colby; two sisters, Sharlene Schrock, Holbrook Neb.; and Carol Jones, Austin Texas; 11 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 7, 2012, at the church.

Visitation was to be from 2 to 7 p.m. today at Baalman Mortuary (formerly Harrison Chapel) in Colby.

The family suggests memorials to the church, in care of the mortuary, Box 391, Colby, Kan., 67701.

Roger Dean Bliss

Roger Dean Bliss, 69, a retired Atwood farmer and mechanic, died Saturday, Dec. 31, 2011, at the McPherson Memorial Hospital.

He was born Aug. 12, 1942, in Atwood, the son of Wilber Cyril and Mary Lucille (Makings) Bliss. In 1960 he graduated from Atwood High School, where he was active in sports.

Following high school, he enlisted in the Army Reserve and served for six years in the 113th Field Service Company, achieving the rank of specialist 4.

On Aug. 9, 1975, he married Catherine Marie Neill at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Atwood.

He stayed close to Atwood to help with the family farm and his parents' needs in their final years.

Preceding him in death were his wife in 1987, his parents, and a baby sister, Kimberly Jo Bliss.

Survivors include four children, Catherine Celeste Johnson, Ellis; Breon Bliss, Los Angeles; Maureen (Nick) Sharp, McPherson; and Alec Bliss, Salina; seven siblings, Larry (Sheryl) Bliss, Aurora, Colo.; Ronald (Janie) Bliss, Wichita; Fred (Joanna) Bliss, California; Bob (Margo) Bliss, California; Mary Jean (Phil) Williams, Tonganoxie; Nancy (Steve) McBride, Albuquerque, N.M.; and Lori (Matt) Forrester, Salina; and four grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 7, 2012, at the Christian Church Disciples of Christ in Atwood, with the Rev. Mike McVay officiating and burial in the Mount Calvary Cemetery in Atwood.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. tonight at the Williams Funeral Home in Atwood.

The family suggests memorials in his name, in care of the funeral home, 109 N. Second St., Atwood, Kan., 67730.

Colby Rotary Club

Colby Rotary Club met Tuesday with 28 members and guests Leroy and Joan Ziegler.

President Connie Renner called the meeting to order. Officers were elected for the year beginning July 1. New officers are Melany Wilks, president; Marilyn Unger, vice-president; Eric Griggs, secretary; Wayne Horlacher, treasurer; and Tom Peyton, Mike Tubbs, Nick Wells and Connie Renner, board.

The monthly collection for Genesis-Thomas County was taken.

Jeff Horlacher had the program. During his recent trip to Belgium, he toured a national museum in Luxembourg featuring the history of the Allies in World War II. He had a powerpoint presentation of dioramas depicting American soldiers. In addition, he toured the battleground of the Battle of the Bulge and showed pictures of still-visible foxholes and the densely-wooded Ardennes mountains where the battle took place. He noted the battle was the single largest and bloodiest battle of the war and a turning point. As a part of the tour, his group laid a wreath in memory of the many American soldiers who gave their lives but whose graves remain unknown.

Steve Ziegelmeier won Roto-Lotto.

Colby Rotary meets Tuesdays in Room 106 of the Student Union at Colby Community College.

Epiphany not really 'neat'

• From the Pulpit

would know about the birth of another king. But Herod, fearing any threat to his throne, wanted to find and kill this baby, using the Eastern visitors as his way to discover where the child was. The Magi, trusting the message in the dream took another route home.

And Joseph also had a dream where he was told to take Mary and the child and flee to Egypt. He too trusted the dream, so as the Magi traveled east, Joseph, Mary and Jesus were headed west.

But even these unexpected journeys are not the end. Herod, when he learned that the kings would not be paying a return visit, ordered that all the children in and around Bethlehem who were under two be killed, hoping to remove the child who threatened Herod's reign.

In the first Christmas story there is a lot that is gone as it ends, and not very neatly put away. As the Christmas story comes to a close in the Bible things do not go back to the way they were. Normal for the eastern visitors and for the new family will never be the same. Nor will it be for the families who suffered from Herod's wrath.

It may seem that even for some of us we are facing a New Year that begins, not the magic memories of Christmas, the glitter of lights and the joy of singing Christmas carols, but with decisions we don't want to deal with, with heavy journeys toward places we may not know or where we don't want to go, and with a load of worry or grief we aren't sure we can or want to carry with us. We may not be sure what "normal" might be.

But even under such circumstances the Christmas story changes everything, because we are no longer journeying alone. Jesus Christ, God in the flesh, is traveling with us. Jesus, who at birth had no real home, who in life was rejected and suspected of heresy and treason, and who in death endured horrible pain as he was put to death as a traitor against Rome, it is he who is with us. Emmanuel, God with us, the one who knows life's uncertainties, has traveled the hard journeys, and still travels along with us now.

As Christmas ends we are not left behind by God, but God's promise of redemption is alive in us through Jesus. God's love overflows, God's grace reaches deep in each of us, yet for some it can be difficult, for many and diverse reasons, to be aware of the new life we are given as the Christmas gift. God, in Jesus, changes everything. We can accept the gift we have already been given – or not. Jesus can continue to grow and mature in us – or not. We can journey as if alone, or we can realize that Jesus is with us, working powerfully and lovingly to not let Christmas end, but to keep the miracle alive, growing and glowing.

God's Christmas promise is that the best is yet to come. We may not know it, may even not believe it, but that is what Jesus is all about. God's best, with us now, with us wherever we are and in the midst whatever might happen, with us forever. The fullness of hope and love and grace is the real end of the Christmas story. The fullness of the Best. May you recognize and claim this gift. May you know your new year is blessed with the very Best.

Van hits house for second time

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The first time Doug Edmisten's house in Knoxville, Tenn., was struck by a vehicle, he had come home from Iraq to see his son's birth. A runaway construction truck ran into the house in February 2010.

Edmisten, his wife, Sandy, and the couple's son were visiting her parents on Christmas Eve when his neighbor called and said, "Merry Christmas. There's a van in your house," he told the Knoxville News Sentinel (<http://bit.ly/vUJqYJ>).

"I couldn't believe it," Edmisten said. "So we did Santa Claus and came home to see the damage on Christmas Day."

The vehicle belonged to a neighbor, who told police he'd been working on the vehicle's brakes.

The last time, the Edmisten family spent 65 days in a motel while the damage was repaired.

This time, the gas meter was hit and the chimney was knocked loose.

Edmisten figures they'll celebrate their son's second birthday at a motel.

"One day we'll tell him, 'The first couple years of your life were a little chaotic,'" he said.
