Christian contemporary performers scheduled for Sunday evening concert

Christian contemporary music band the Sidewalk Prophets and performer Josh Wilson will give a concert Sunday at the Colby Community Building, sponsored by KGCR radio.

The Sidewalk Prophets are best known for their No. 1 hit songs, "You Love Me Anyway" and "The Words I Would Say," from their first album "These Simple Truths." They will perform these along with music from their new album, "Live Like That," which challenges believers to consider whether those they leave behind look upon the life they lived and say, "I want to live like them because they lived like Christ."

The Sidewalk Prophets will be joined by Josh Wilson, best known for hit songs "Fall Apart," "I Refuse," "Before the Morning" and "Savior Please." Wilson made CNN headlines when he performed an impromptu concert for a group stranded in an east coast airport by hours of flight delays.

Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. for the 7:30 p.m. concert at the Community Building. Tickets are $13 for individuals and $10 for groups of 10 or more and are available in Colby at the Farmers and Merchants Bank
