Library plans book sale for end of month

The Pioneer Memorial Library will have its annual Book Sale Blowout from Monday, July 30, to Sunday, Aug. 5. With lots of children's books, fiction and nonfiction items to choose from, prices go down as the week progresses. Sunday, all remaining books are free. Hours are 9 a.m. to a half hour before closing time each day and 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Sunday. For information, call Debbie Tittel at 460-4470.

Registration next month for Youth Soccer league

Registration for American Youth Soccer Organization players will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 9, and from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 11. Cost is $45 until Aug. 11, $50 after. Deadline to register is Friday, Aug. 17. Players must be at least 4 1/2 by Aug. 1. The season runs from Saturday, Sept. 8, to Saturday, Oct. 27. Call Emily Griffin at 460-0647 for questions or paperwork.

Several other suggestions for

- The county should reduce the number of accounts held at banks to only a few deemed necessary by the county treasurer.

“In my defense, one of those was for $1,” said Sheriff Rod Taylor, “and the other was there even before I started.”

Staats told Taylor he didn’t need to waste money on stop payment fees on those checks. They can simply be voided, he said.

said, he might be the only one next year who has any background in school finance.

Billinger said he did not vote in favor of the governor's tax plan, because it was projected to result in a deficit down the road. He said he favors property tax relief over income tax cuts.

Schields then introduced the House candidates. Both Billinger of Goodland and Cassidy from St. Francis have served one term in the House.

They were thrown into one district by a federal court decision where judges redrew the state's boundary lines.

Billinger, originally from Park, said he moved to Goodland in the 1970s. He was elected by the 121st District's Republican Committee to fill Rep. Jim Morrison's post after his death in December 2010.

Billinger said the Legislature needs to stick behind schools, agriculture and hospitals. It has been doing a good job with the budget, he said.

There was a deficit in 2010, and the Legislature was able to get to a surplus this year. He
