Lady Trojans hold tournament in Colby

The Colby Community College women's golf team held the college's first Jayhawk Conference tournament Sunday and Monday at the Meadow Lake Golf Course in Colby.

Seventeen golfers competed in the two-day event, which included 18 holes on Sunday and nine on Monday.

Dodge City Community College golfers Annie Sheridan and Lina Gaquero finished first and second with a 27-hole total of 127.

Colby golfer Kaylee Keck was just a stroke behind, taking third with a score of 128. Jalyn Mc-

Cauley, St. Francis, also had a 128. She received the fourth-place medal. When there is a tie, placings are determined by comparing scores on the most difficult hole(s) on the course.

Taylor Gobin, Hill City, finished with a 148. Rachel Platt, Syracuse, posted a 159 and Macinzie Lehman, Tribune, finished with a 163.

The Colby women are coached by Miles Ladenburger, assisted by Lisa Stithem. The next competition for the Lady Trojans will be Sunday, Sept. 30, in Coffeyville.
