When is the right time to sell your real estate? Did you know your real estate has appreciated in our high seller's market? Let me answer both of those questions: "The right time to sell is when the prices are high and the market will give you the strongest return on your investment." "Your real estate has appreciated in our local market in the past 24 months and is perhaps at an all time high." With the shortage of homes and land for sale, there is little risk... And great profit to be made. This seller's market will not last... so take advantage now, be a good steward to YOUR REAL ESTATE! A question often asked, "If I sell my land... what do I do with my cash?" It is always solid advice to diversify your dollars - talk to your financial advisor about your options. Call Molly J. Oliver or Kevin M. Barnett and let us turn your real estate to CASH!
