Checking out the snow

Colby Free Press Publisher Sharon Friedlander's bloodhound Noah didn't have a yardstick, so he used his nose to see how deep the snow was Saturday. Colby got 10 inches of snow this past weekend.

tabled until the next meeting.

• Discussed the annual board of trustees dinner, where they invite students to join them and talk about what they like and dislike about their programs. The trustees decided hold the dinner before the monthly meeting in April. The dinner will begin at 5:30 p.m., with the meeting to follow at 7 p.m.

• Went through the board self-evaluations and discussed program areas that had low scores. These areas included admissions and planning; educational programs and quality; fiduciary roles; board leadership, including creating a code of ethics; and board meetings.

Chairman Arlen Leiker asked the trustees to look through the evaluations and pick one item they think the board should really focus on next year. After that, he said, the board can agree on a goal.

• Heard the February financial report from Alan Waites, vice president for business affairs. He said expenses are still on track, open purchase orders are starting to drop off, the annual budget forecast of $13.880 million is still good, budget reports indicate about $5.3 million remaining to spend and the cash balance Feb. 28 was $2.43 million.

Even though the cash balance was high, Waites said that money needs to last the college through May.

In other items, he said, academic program review work is complete and is under review by academics group, work on the 2013-14 budget is well underway, cash flow will remain critical for the foreseeable future and work continues on the Higher Learning Commission financial review follow-up, due today.

Snow storm dumps 10 inches in Colby hotel rooms and truck parking in town filled up during the day, the westbound lanes were closed at WaKeeney and then, at 6:30 p.m., all the way to Hays.

K-27 was closed from Goodland to the Nebraska state line, and the westbound lanes of U.S. 36 were closed from St. Francis to the Colorado line. All the roads had opened back up by 7:30 a.m. Sunday and people began to get out of town.

Budget Inn and Suites reported filling 28 of its 33 rooms. The Comfort Inn, Days Inn, Holliday Inn, Super 8 Motel, Sleep Inn and Suites and Quality Inn all reported filling up all their rooms during the storm.

Several weekend events around town were postponed due to the snow. Two Easter egg hunts were shifted to this weekend: one at Fike Park, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, and another at the College Drive Assembly of God will be from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Saturday. The "Bowl For Kid's Sake" tour-namment, which raises money for Big Brothers Big Sisters, will be from 1 to 6 p.m. that same day at Colby Bowl and Fun Center.

Farm and Ranch Realty put off its auction to 9:30 a.m. Saturday, April 6. The "Walk a Mile in Her Shoes" event organized by Colby Community College will be at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 7.

But the Colby Home and Better Living Show, sponsored by KXXX Radio, went on as scheduled all weekend long at the Community Building.

House shows support for Keystone pipeline

TOPEKA (AP) — Kansas legislators are urging the White House and the U.S. State Department to approve a permit for construction of the Keystone XL pipeline from Canada to Texas.

The House of Representatives gave first-round approval today on a voice vote to a nonbinding resolution urging President Barack Obama and the State Department to approve permits to allow construction to begin. Federal approval is required because the pipeline crosses international boundaries.

Opponents have delayed the project for four years over concerns that extracting oil from Alberta tar sands would increase global warming.

The project was further delayed when Nebraska officials objected to the proposed route through the state.

A recent State Department report raised no major objections to the project, which has already been constructed through Kansas.

Briefly
