Area students to help at enrollment

Bailey Koerperich and Jordan Krzycki of Colby and Isaac Broeckelman of Selden have been selected to serve as three of the Fort Hays State University orientation assistants for 2013.

These students help freshmen and transfer students and their parents and families become familiar with the campus and its resources. They will staff pre-enrollment sessions during the spring as well as orientation events in August. Koerperich is a sophomore majoring in communication studies. Krzycki, a senior, is majoring in psychology, and Broeckelman, a junior, is studying health and human performance.

Three named ambassadors

Three Colby High School graduates are among the 26 selected to serve as official Fort Hays State University representatives - Anderson VIP Student Ambassadors - for the 2013-2014 academic year.

Anderson Ambassadors serve at a variety of special events. Those from Colby include Jordan Krzycki, a senior majoring in psychology; Anna Taylor, a junior majoring in elementary education; and Taylor Young, a senior majoring in finance.

Orientation assistants must have a department or faculty recommendation and a minimum 2.5 grade average, have demonstrated academic ability, communication skills and interest in working with new students.
