• Approved a $137,547.12 contract for 2014 dispatch services the county shares evenly with the City of Colby, a 1.3 percent increase over the 2013 cost.

• Extended the county's no-cost contract with the state to allow county personnel to perform weed-free forage inspections.

• Approved a $1,385 contract with Computer Information Concepts Inc. of Greeley, Colo., to provide software support.

• Decided Berens should pursue collection actions, including lawsuits, against residents who owe the county money from debts at the landfill, weed department and others. Berens' office has sent collection letters and may follow up with other legal action if the parties involved do not pay their debts.
