Emergency crews busy

• Put off deciding on a proposal from Walter P. Moore and Associates Inc., a Kansas City engineering firm that specializes in structural assessments and restoration of historic buildings. The company's proposed cost for a structural assessment of the Thomas County courthouse is $6,800 and a review of exploratory openings at the courthouse will cost $2,400. The commissioners delayed a decision until architect Glen Strait, who was unavailable to be at the meeting because of a family illness, could discuss it with them.

• Set dates for their July and August meetings. The commissioners plan regular meetings at 9 a.m. on Monday and Monday, July 15, followed by a special budget meeting that afternoon; a regular meeting Wednesday, July 31; a budget hearing on Monday, Aug. 12; and regular meetings on Monday, Aug. 19 and Friday, Aug. 30.

• Discussed building safety issues recently dis- McDonald for property sold in 2006.

covered by the county's insurance carrier in the road and bridge department, emergency medical services and the courthouse. Most issues were minor, like old batteries in an emergency light fixture, and have already been fixed or are being fixed.

- Approved accounts payable of $294,673 for general county funds, $87,604 for the Road and Bridge Department and $33,943 for the Noxious Weed Department, and a payroll register of
- Received budget requests from the Northwest Kansas Retired and Senior Volunteer Program and the Thomas County treasurer. The treasurer's office did not increase its budget request for 2014, but Treasurer Donita Applebury asked the commissioners to give Layn Bruggeman, Applebury's replacement, authority to allocate any payroll increases as she sees fit.
- Approved a tax abatement of $342 for Larry

Striping the streets

Romulo Perez (left) and Jose Diaz finished a crosswalk across Fourth Street just east of Range Ave. on the morning of June 27. The employees of the company RoadSafe Traffic Systems were working on a project for the Kansas Department of Transportation, putting the finishing touches on the new asphalt laid down on Fourth and South Range per," will also tour this summer.

The war letters, some flecked with blood or coated with a fine layer of sand, bring history to life in a way little else can. One from World War II is pierced by a bullet hole that hit the soldier's backpack but didn't kill him. Another is enhanced by an elaborate cartoon done by an airman who was supposed to work for Disney upon his return, but was killed in action.

"It's about real people and what they go through, whether Private collector and author it's frontline combat, whether it's on the home front: combat gathering war correspondence letters, love letters, last letters." Carroll said.
