Colby's fourth through sixth graders finished a perfect 20-0 regular season against Jayhawk League foes with their 14-0, 10-1 sweep of visiting Quinter Wednesday evening.

Carter Stanley and Tommy Cline teamed to pitch game one while Seth Hutfles and Heath Bolyard dominated the finale.

Meanwhile, every Colby hitter contributed again to these latest impressive wins.

"From top to bottom, our lineup hit the ball well," coach Jeff Krzycki confirmed.

Colby now awaits an opening tournament foe for Thursday.

champions: Collin Geihlsler, Konner Griffin, Tucker Branum, Kyler Britt, Tyler Zerr, Aaron Platt, Jason Krannawitter, Gage Winger, Isaac Rosales, Jakob Tubbs, Mason Wright, Bolyard, Stanley, Cline and Hutfles.

Krzycki also praised the efforts of assistant coach Cade Carter.

Season races stay tight at Speedway

Only one point separates three season championship chases entering Sunday night's racing action at Thomas County Speedway. Alex West (117 points) has edged ahead of Rocky Baalman (116) for the Econos lead where seven drivers have topped 100 points so far this season.

The always competitive Modifieds feature Michael Wadel (114 points) barely leading Adam Morris (113) and Nate Moore (111).

Meanwhile, the Stock Cars are closer than any other class as three leaders are separated by a single point. Jason Rogers (112) owns that narrow advantage over both BJ Wagoner (111) and Tyler Tipton (111).

Neither Clay Money nor Cody Graham are running away with the other two divisions. Money (113) remains just six points ahead of Andy Barton (105) in the Sport Mods.

Graham (120 points) has earned the largest season lead over top Hobby Stock challengers Mike Giesenhagen (105) and Jason McIntyre (105). However, Graham's coming off a mishap during the most recent Speedway races on June 23.

Look out for Mike "The Flyin Goose" Giesenhagen, left, as he's currently running second in the Hobby Stocks season points chase at Thomas County Speedway this summer. Giesenhagen leads a pack around the curve during a race on June 23. Action resumes Sunday evening at 7 p.m.

All these great chances should add some spark to a special Military Appreciation Night on Sunday. The American Legion Families 363 Post has organized this event, which features free admission for anyone owning a military ID card or DD 214.

The URSS 305 Sprints are also coming to Thomas County Speedway Sunday night and should bring a large group of cars to Colby.

Hot laps are set to begin at 6 p.m. leading into the 7 p.m. races.
